Sweet potatoes provide a good amount of Vitamin C, which helps keep body tissues healthy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McAfee of Greenville visited Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gordon over the week-end.

C. W. (Puny) Wood, Houston county representative, was a Crockett visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Armistead Aldrich of Edinburg is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. F. Chamberlain, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kelley and children of Houston spent the week-end in Crockett with relatives and friends.

Billy Callahan, student at SMU, Dallas, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. E. J. Callahan of this city.

Harold (Red) Reid, manager of the Ritz theatre, was listed among those suffering with a case of "flu" last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Brannen and little daughter of Gladewater were week-end visitors in Crockett and Pennington.

A middle-west draftee claimed exemption on the ground of poor eyesight and brought his wife along as evidence.

An advance Easter fashion note says there will be little change in men's pockets, which is most discouraging.

Mrs. W. E. Bennett returned Sunday to Gladewater, after spending several weeks in the home of her sister, Miss Alice Brewer.

Friends of Mrs. Orrie Hanson will be glad to know that she is improving nicely in a Crockett hospital after her recent operation.

Mrs. Jennie M. Gibson returned to Dallas Sunday after spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gibson in their new home on Red Bud Lane.

Mrs. Roy Selman, member of the Latexo school faculty, was reported Monday as improving in a local hospital, after undergoing major surgery Saturday.

When the little girl wanted to know why there were no whiskers on the men in heaven, her mother said it was because the men got in with a close shave.

When you smile you use thirteen muscles, but it takes 43 muscles to frown, which is something quite satisfying for those of us who do not like to exert ourselves.

Female Most Dangerous.

Reading where a woman had killed a man, we asked Friend Milldew Saturday which was the most dangerous — the blonde or the brunette? He allowed it was the one a man got tangled up with, and we reckoned, not knowing, that he was right.

Mrs. Geo. E. Fulgham of Pasadena is in Crockett this week with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Lee, Rev. Lee being confined to his bed following a recent illness.

WANTED. Reliable hustler to supply consumers with 200 household necessities. State age, occupation, references. Rawleigh's, Dept. TXB-1650-Y, Memphis, Tenn. It.

Friend Milldew said that when Mrs. Milldew accused him of talking in his sleep, he told her that she should not object, as it was the only time she gave him to talk in.

Complete Menu.

Ham with sweet potatoes, broccoli, crisp celery, hot biscuits, butter, cherry pie, milk and coffee.

As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master. This expresses my idea of democracy. What ever differs from this, to the extent of the difference, is no democracy. — Abraham Lincoln, August, 1858.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy during our recent sorrow.

The Bricker Family.

New rose plants should be set to the same depth they were growing in the nursery. They should not be planted in old rose beds nor where they must compete with shrubs and trees for plant food and moisture.

Hon. Nat. Patton, ex-congressman, who picked peas out of his father's peapatch to pay for his first subscription to the Courier and who has been reading it since that time, called Saturday and renewed for another year.

Banquet at Weldon.

Weldon Gymnasium Friday, February 16, from 6 to 9 p. m. Sponsored by Weldon Chapter No. 969, O. E. S. Plates $1.00 each, child's plate 50c. It.

In Signal Corps.

Word has been received by Mrs. J. L. Burton that Phil Jones is now stationed at Fort Holabird, Baltimore, Maryland. Phil is in the signal corps and says he thinks he will like it.

Fort Hood Assignment.

Recruit Thomas M. Johnson, son of Mrs. Stella Johnson of Route 1, Crockett, Texas, has been assigned to a combat unit of the famous 2nd Armored Division at Fort Hood, Texas, for training.

Building Permit.

One building permit was issued at the office of City Secretary J. D. Woodson last week. The permit was for repairs on the home of George Cheney, after a recent fire. The home is located on Seventh street. Estimated cost is $3000.

Here for Funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bricker and her mother, Mrs. T. C. Hughes of Houston, were called to the bedside of his grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Bricker of Crockett, was was fatally burned. They also visited in the John Allee home at Austin.

Severe Illness.

Mr. S. L. Gentry, one of the Courier's long-time readers and friends living out on Crockett Rt. 3, was among those calling Saturday and renewing for another year. We regretted to learn that Mrs. Gentry has been suffering from a severe and serious illness.

Food and a Market.

That part of Houston county released from the sweet potato quarantine has an opportunity to grow sweet potatoes for the rest of the county. Yams are a very essential and acceptable food. Let those of us who can grow yams, grow 'em, and sell what we can't use to those of us who can't grow 'em because of the potato quarantine. Let there be yams for all.

Education Course.

A group of teachers and individuals are taking an education course which is being offered through the Sam Houston College, Huntsville. This extension course is on the subject of "Guidance."

Dr. William Nowens of Huntsville is teaching the class on Tuesday afternoons, and the course will last until May. Twenty have signed for the course.

At Atlantic City.

W. L. Jordan, school superintendent of the Crockett High school, left Tuesday to attend the American Association of School Administrators at Atlantic City, N. J. Mr. Jordan has been attending these meetings for a number of years. Nationally known speakers will talk on subjects of vital importance to the high schools today, and about thirteen thousand administrators will attend.

W. T. Hoskins has entered Stephen F. Austin State Teachers' College at Nacogdoches.

Mr. E. B. Arnold is seriously ill in a Houston hospital, the Courier regrets to report.

When our cat wouldn't go and the mechanic said it was because a short circuit was in the wiring, we just hauled off and told him, by jockey, to put in a longer one instead.

For Sale.

Mrs. Mary Muckleroy.

Mrs. Mary Muckleroy, 88, died February 5 in Trinity. Services were held February 7 at 3 p. m. at the graveside. Interment was in the Fairview cemetery of Nacogdoches.

Mrs. Muckleroy was a member of the Baptist church and had resided in Trinity for the past sixteen years. Survivors: Will Muckleroy, Trinity, and Walter Muckleroy, Baytown; two grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Arrangements were by the Callaway Funeral Home.

PHI THETA KAPPA GETS JULIA BEALL

Miss Julia Beall, student at Lon Morris College, Jacksonville, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Beall of this city, has been elected as a member of the Phi Theta Kappa society.

The Phi Theta Kappa society is a National honorary society for Junior colleges. Miss Beall is a freshman in the college, and a student of dramatics and music. She also made the honor roll for the term which has just recently ended.

POLK OILERS DOWN CROCKETT

The Polk Oilers basketball team defeated the Crockett All-Stars, managed by George Barton, Saturday night in the high school gymnasium, 58 to 35. The Oilers quipped thoroughly outplayed the local crew and won, going away.

McCarthy accounted for 14 points, Brock 13 and Parnell and Skinner 10 each as the visitors piled up the points. Harrelson and Hamlin each got six for the losers.

Frank Corbitt officiated.

Patronize Courier Advertisers.

AL BROWN BURIAL AT GRAPELAND ON SATURDAY

Algie Lee Brown, 78, died February 9 at his home in Grapeland. Services were held February 10 at 3 p. m. at the First Methodist church of Grapeland, with Rev. Alton Jones officiating. Interment was in the Grapeland cemetery.

Mr. Brown had resided in Grapeland for the past fifty years. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Grapeland.

Survivors: Five daughters, Mrs. Lillene Murray and Miss Nettie Brown, Baytown, Mrs. Edith Smith, Texarkana, Mrs. Lucy Heard, Grapeland, and Mrs. Neola Wham, Tyler; seven sons, Joe, Polk, Ross, Gordon, Pridgen, Ted and Billy, all of Grapeland; four grandchildren.

Funeral services were his sons. Arrangements were by the Callaway Funeral Home of Grapeland.

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA MEETING IN LOVELADY

The Houston-Trinity county members of Delta Kappa Gamma held their regular meeting Saturday, February 10, at the home of Mrs. J. N. Collins in Lovelady.

Those attending were: Miss Katy King, Mrs. Marcus Mason and Mrs. R. L. Barclay of Crockett; Mrs. Juanita Compton, Mrs. Gladys Courtney, Miss Blanche Hinson and Mrs. English of Groveton; Mrs. W. L. Maxwell, Mrs. Ralph Westmoreland, Mrs. L. H. Monzingo, Mrs. Ida Jones, Mrs. Nan Russell and the hostess of Lovelady.

BAPTIST REVIVAL HAS RELIGIOUS AWAKENING

The revival, held at the First Baptist church February 4 through 11, closed Sunday night.

Dr. Frank Weedon, evangelist, presented many forceful and inspiring messages to the large groups attending each night. People from Jacksonville, Rusk, Groveton, Grapeland, Madisonville and other nearby towns came to hear Dr. Weedon's messages.

By the close of the meeting Sunday night it was announced that fourteen had received baptism, eight had been received by letter, and a number had rededicated their lives to forward the Christian ways of life.

Cow Was Particular.

Friend Milldew, here Saturday, related how during the freeze, he had to lead the cow into Mrs. Milldew's living room for Mrs. Milldew to milk her; he would not allow Mrs. Milldew to go out in the cold to milk the cow. He excused himself by saying that this cow was very particular about who milked her, especially so in bad weather.
