QUICK PUNISHMENT,

Everybody admits that the truck load limits of Texas are being violated. Whether the present requirements are correct in view of existing conditions may be open to question and there should be every disposition to fix the permitted weight at a just figure. But [Texas] [uncertain] has the night to police it own highways and no one has a right to violate the states rest [quirements.] [uncertain] u!

The bill passed Wednesday in the!
Lower House of the Texas Legisla sure sets up a remedy that will work. It is simple and it will be effective most certainly, [The] [uncertain] load limit are

LETTER FROM BIG [NATIONAL] [uncertain] ADVERTISER

Editor Caurier,
Crockett, Texas,

Whats going to happen to advertising? 1 wish IT could push back, hoist my feet on the desk, look you squarely in the eye and say: Ive got tho answer to that one." But you know as well as I do that I don't and 1 doubt if any one has. In this just-starting era of shortages, eventual rationing and other allno-familiar problems facing each of uw as our nation goes into a full-scale defense program, your [guosa] [uncertain] a as good as ming how it comes to crydtal-balling the advertising picture, On the other hand, [It] [uncertain] seems to me that n Uttle plain old-country logic" on the subject would go about [Ilke] [uncertain] this: There will be readjustment of ad-[vertlaing] [uncertain] plans) there may be [all]} [uncertain] here and there ad various [compantos] [uncertain] xo about the task of surveying the situation and re-orlenting [advortiaing] [uncertain] programs. This may cause temporary oft spot"" In some" of your schedule, Asn a whole, hastily add, ft is my belief that Hneage [gefornally] [uncertain] will bo equal to last, year, and there in w good possibility it egg be better. 1 just don't ag how any firm [ongagod]

[uncertain] in national, regional or [soetlona] [uncertain] allen operation can afford not to continue ta advertising, Tone of copy will change, of course hard-nelljig copy gradually will give away to institutional and name-promotion copy depending on the speed of our count try approach to all-out war.
