SPRING TRAINING TO CLOSE WITH PRACTICE [GAME] [uncertain]

The Crockett High Bulldogs will close out spring football training shortly with a practice game. If weather is favorable at the week end, this game will probably be played Friday. If the weather is unfavorable Friday, the contest will likely be held Monday. The thirty days allowed for spring football training will run through next Wednesday, but Coach Dusty Simmons wants to close it out to make way for baseball and track and field training.

Approximately 40 boys have engaged in spring football work, but absences from illness and other causes have sometimes cut the squad to around 22 boys. The squad has already been divided for the scrimmage and engaged in some hard [headknocking] [uncertain] last Friday.

Coach Simmons was at Fort Worth Saturday to attend sessions of a clinic at TCU. Coach Dutch Meyer explained his spread formation, which intrigues the local mentor. Coach Whitworth of Oklahoma A. M. discussed the [T.] [uncertain] TCU grinders engaged in a spring training scrimmage for benefit of the high school coaches. We would not be surprised to see either Joe Arledge or Jackie Corbitt as the point on spread plays next fall, or alternating as such. However, Simmons and his assistant, Robert Summers, have concentrated on the double-wing plays in spring training, while carrying over single-wing stuff from last fall.
