[T] [uncertain] EVERYBODYS" HEADACHE ee

[A.goud] [uncertain] many people seem to think, that most retailers must be having a wonderful, trouble-free time these days. About all they have to" do, the argument runs, is to put bigger and bigger price tags on the merchandise and watch the fat profits [rel]] [uncertain] in hike the sea.

do well to read the proceedings of retail conventions, and the magazines and house organs which deal with re. [jtailefs"] [uncertain] problems and activities.

i The [higgest] [uncertain] thing retailing has ta!

a goes Yor small stores [jand] [uncertain] Jarge, the [chaina] [uncertain] and the inde- [pendents—ix] [uncertain] high and rising prices. It in a nightmare to every store owner and executive.

There are two main reasons for this, First, American retailing de- pends on [hig] [uncertain] turnover, at a [smal]] [uncertain] profit on each sale. High prices force families to cut their buying to the limit. People are priced out of the market. So, the retailer, right along

[illegible or non-text passage omitted — see scan]

Second, contrary to a widely held misconception, high prices de not mean high profits in most causes. The [mer.] [uncertain] chant gets more for his goods.-but hin cost of buying those [Koods] [uncertain] and paying his overhead has in Many casey risen to a greater degree. So it is not uncommon for the storekeeper to find that [hig] [uncertain] net profit.is actually Jess than it wan when prices were inch

Jower than now,

In any fight [Bgainat] [uncertain] inflation, the consumer can count on the aggressive help of the retailer, Belf-interest alone makes that a certainty,

WHERE [IS] [uncertain] THE BLAME?

Who do you blame for inflation?

Thin Inu free country and were [ull] [uncertain] entitled to our opinions, But the fuck in that the people moat of un blame for inflation are among [ita] [uncertain] victims. The manufacturer and the retailer, for Inatanco, [munt] [uncertain] operate in intense competition, and [thelr] [uncertain] profits, believe jt or not, amount to wa [vory amall] [uncertain] part of the consumer dollar, Labor and the farmer, like [ove] [uncertain] yon [tle,] [uncertain] may have boon [wully] [uncertain] of ox canon but they too are in tough daily contact with the high count of living problem, and they naturally [brotuct thuniselsen] [uncertain] ae beat they can.
