BULLDOG BAND TO PLAY AT CONTEST

Friday morning at 11:30 the Crockett High School Bulldog band will play at Huntsville for the Region V Music festival. The high school band will be competing in Class A in which twenty musical organizations will participate.

Plans are for the band to leave here at 8:35 a. m. The band will tune up about 10 o'clock. At eleven they will enter the warm-up room and play on the stage at 11:30. The band members will then go immediately to the sight-reading room and sight-read two pieces. After that the band will be freed until 2:30 p. m. They will return to Crockett about 3:30 p. m.

BILL TUNSTALL DIED IN HOUSTON

The Courier regrets to report that information was received by relatives and friends in Crockett about noon Wednesday that W. M. (Bill) Tunstall had passed away in a Houston hospital, where he had been critically ill for some time. Mr. Tunstall was a lifelong resident of Crockett and Houston county and had served as constable of the Crockett precinct since January 1, 1951. An operation had been performed at Houston in an effort to save Mr. Tunstall's life, but his ailment was such that all efforts were futile in preventing his death. The deceased was a veteran of World War I and a member of Davy Crockett Lodge No. 195, Knights of Pythias.

CIVIL CASES IN DISTRICT COURT

A civil suit for damages is set in Houston county district court for Monday. A jury will be summoned to hear the suit. Style of the case is John A. Moad vs. Gary B. Mize et al. At the last previous setting of the case, it was continued on motion of the plaintiff, because of illness of an important witness.

Attorneys for the plaintiff are C. C. Cason & Lusk of Houston. Representing the defendants are Adams & Morgan of Crockett, Phil Kelton of Dallas, Montgomery & Grammer of Houston and Lucian Touchstone of Dallas. A number of civil cases, both jury and non jury, are set down for trial in Houston county district court in May, including the following next week:

May 2.
Chester Gale et al vs. E. L. McGill.
Crescenta King et al vs. J. B. Brown et al.

May 3.
Glen Jackson, Inc. vs. Consumer Fuel and Appliances Co.

COUPLE EXCHANGES VOWS IN HOME WEDDING

Miss Joanne Elaine Shotwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Madden of Crockett, and Charles A. Hallmark, seaman, U. S. N., and brother of Mrs. Johnny Hale of Crockett, were married Wednesday afternoon, April 19, at 6 o'clock in a quiet home wedding at the home of Miss Madden's sister, Mrs. A. J. Henning. The Rev. A. D. Stuckey performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. A. J. Henning. She wore a white suit with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

Miss Willie Mae Dickey was maid of honor. Johnny Hale served as best man.

Pink gladioli and flesh-colored stock were arranged in peacock baskets and the archway in the home was entwined with smilax and pink satin bows. A reception was held at the Henning residence following the ceremony.

Mrs. Frank Penny Jr. presided at the bride's book. After the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip to Houston.

PARTIES HONOR BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Joanne Elaine Shotwell, whose marriage to Forrest Salter will be an event of Saturday evening in the First Methodist church in Crockett, was the honoree at a series of delightful parties during the last week-end. The first of these was Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lochte and Mrs. Meta Paul were hosts in the Lochte home on Main Street. The spacious rooms were arranged with blue, yellow and white columbine, yellow tulips and iris. The dining room table was laid with a cloth of Madeira embroidery and centered with a bowl of blue painted daisies. The appointments were of silver. About 40 guests were present.

Following the delicious supper an hour of informal music was enjoyed. The honoree was presented with silver in her chosen pattern.

Miss Shotwell and her fiancé were again honored Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Weiss entertained in their home on North Street. Blue and white iris, Easter lilies, columbine and pansies were used to arrange the spacious home for the occasion.

The guests, who numbered about 50, were served a delicious shrimp supper and later enjoyed a series of card games. The honoree was presented with a set of crystal salad plates. Miss Flo Weiss assisted her parents with the serving and entertaining.

KELLEY REUNION HELD SUNDAY

A reunion of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kelley was held Sunday by members of the immediate family and grandchildren.

It has been the custom to meet in the town of a member of the family each year, and this year Crockett, the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kelley, was the scene of this annual event.

The group had dinner at the Crockett hotel. Beautiful flowers were flown from Hawaii by a son of Mrs. Platt who lives in Honolulu for the occasion.

Thirty-six were present, including Mrs. J. W. Bright of Troup, Mrs. N. H. Phillips of Huntsville, Mrs. Ben Anthony of Mineola and Mrs. S. F. Platt of Honolulu.

In the afternoon the group visited in the home of Misses Mollie and Willie Jensen, the Jensen family being close friends and neighbors of the Kelley family.

Evangelist Lester Roloff ENTERPRISES TO VISIT CROCKETT

Roloff Evangelistic Enterprises, led by Rev. Lester Roloff, will be in Crockett for a two-week revival beginning Monday, April 30, 1951, at 7:45 p. m., under a huge tent to be located on South Fifth Street at Pennington highway. Brother Lester Roloff's pastorate in Corpus Christi, Texas, during Brother Roloff's pastorate in Corpus Christi, Texas, the church added one thousand twelve (1012) members; property increased from sixty-five thousand dollars ($65,000) to five hundred thirty-three thousand dollars ($533,000); three thousand three hundred (3,300) converts; five ministers were licensed to preach; twenty-three (23) ministers fully organized; three missions stations organized; one Christian day-school organized and operated with one hundred thirty students and seven teachers; and he preaches to over a million people over the radio each week.

The Roloff Evangelistic Enterprises are coming to Crockett under the sponsorship of the Central Baptist church of Crockett. Other churches of the city are cooperating in this great evangelistic crusade. The public is invited and urged to attend at 7:45. The revival tent is fully equipped with comfortable seats, piano and organ.

The Oakland, county demonstration club, was entertained by Mrs. A. Houston the afternoon of April 18, with eight members present. Each one wrote the recipe for her favorite modern cake, in answer to the roll call. It was decided to make something to sell with the idea of making money for the club and, also, to be ready for a nice lunch at the fair. Mrs. Guy Shroyer Sr. offers her home for the next meeting, May 2.

GRAPELAND HIGH COMES HERE FOR FRIDAY BALL GAME

The Grapeland High Sandies will come to Crockett Friday afternoon to compete in the first round of the district 15A baseball race. The Sandies have a capable mound staff in Lawrence Chapman, sophomore, and "Doc" Denman, senior. Otherwise the ball club suffers from inexperience, but is steadily improving. Crockett has two non-conference victories over the Sandies, but that will mean nothing Friday as the two nines pair off in district play. Starting with only four letter men, Coach Darrell Shaver has worked hard with his youngsters and has brought them along rapidly.

Tuesday Crockett will travel to Huntsville for a return engagement with Coach Jim Keith's High School High Hornets. Coach Dusty Simmons' Bulldogs handed Huntsville a 12 to 2 licking in the game here last week. The Hornets will be out for revenge.

CROCKETT CATTLE SHOW SET MAY 31

Nine east Texas counties have indicated they will participate in the first mid-East Texas livestock show for the area to be held here on May 31.

The show will exhibit registered breeds of beef cattle and is regarded as being the only show of mixed breeds in the United States, according to Albert S. Brewer Jr., president of the Crockett and Houston County Chamber of Commerce.

The East Texas counties participating will include Houston, Anderson, Angelina, Cherokee, Trinity, Walker, Madison, Leon and Freestone.

Any breeder may show as many head as he wants to and he may put all must be registered.

LEGISLATION

AT AUSTIN

The state revenue and appropriations outlook has taken oa turn for the better since the legislature convened in January. State Comptroller Robert. [8.Calvert] [uncertain] is expected to make a new wo report next week on the amount of [Xe] [uncertain] expected revenue for the next [bienft] [uncertain] nim. The new report will call for tess additional revenue than was [ex-pected] [uncertain] in January to keep the state from going into deficit spending, The Texas constitution does not [al-], [uncertain] low deficit spending except with [ap-, proval] [uncertain] of four-fifths of beth houses. Therefore, the legislature cannot. [ap-] [uncertain] appropriate [uncertain] more than the expected eve venue determined by the comptrollers f report. Mr. Calvert estimated. [in-Jati:] [uncertain] vary that, at) the present rate of iy spending, the state would be spending
