Judge Selman to Austin.

County Judge Roy Selman left Wednesday morning for Austin to attend a Wednesday afternoon hearing by a senate committee on the Sewell bill, levying a tax on natural gas production of the State College at Houston, Texas, spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Ratcliff Lake and surrounding forest areas.

Numerous favorable reports by a senate committee. However, it was re-referred to the senate agriculture committee, considered much more sympathetic to the measure, sponsored by Senator Nokes of Corsicana in the senate.

DIANE BENNETT HONORED AT SMU

On April 24 Diane Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Bennett of this city, was one of the girls who formed the honor guard for Mortar Board. The honor guard was composed of the ten sophomores with the highest grades in the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have received an invitation to the Honors Day convocation May 2 at SMU. The meeting will be held in McPharland auditorium.

Miss Bennett has maintained the standard of scholarship necessary for recognition on this occasion. It is a splendid honor, and the Courier congratulates Miss Bennett.

MIZE GIVEN AWARD $30,000 IN TRIAL IN DISTRICT COURT

Cary B. Mize and wife were awarded damages of $30,000 in a cross-action in a damage suit tried in Houston county district court last week. The suit was styled John A. Mize vs. Cary B. Mize et al. The case resulted from a highway collision on highway 45, north of Trinity, on July 14, 1949. Mize asked $50,000 in damages. In the cross-action, the Mizes asked $70,000 in damages.

Among those injured in the collision were Mrs. Mize and daughter and Mr. Mize and son.

The trial began on Monday morning, with selection of a jury. Testimony was concluded on Wednesday morning, after which the charge was prepared. The charge was read to the jury about 3 p. m., after which attorneys argued the case. The jury returned the case at about 6:15 p. m. and returned their verdict at about 7:45 p. m.

The case was submitted to the jury on 45 separate issues. The jurors answered all questions and the answers favored the Mizes, as stated above.

The suits involving the case included M. L. Holloman, R. L. Crockett, Hubert Bitter, Lovelady; C. B. Spence Jr., Latex; L. P. Paver, Crockett; Curtis Shaw, Latex; L. A. Little, Weldon; Will L. Duron, R. L. Crockett; W. D. Shaver, Latex; Joe Stiffick, Star Rt.; Lovelady; W. C. Baker, Grapeland; Dave E. Raine, Star Rt.; Crockett.

Attorneys for the plaintiff, Mize, were Calhoun & Lusk of Houston, J. B. Salas of Crockett, and Richard H. Baxa of Dallas. For the defendants and cross-plaintiffs, the Mizes, attorneys were Adams & Morgan of Crockett and Phil Patton of Dallas.

Other cases set last week in district court here were continued.

MR. CROW TAKES HIS VACATION

Mr. J. H. Crow, railway express agent, is taking his vacation—taking it only as to get it over with. He says he will put in most of the time fishing. His favorite bedtime when fishing is, after putting his hook to the fishing line to one in his little box, if he can distinguish which are his biggest toes, throw the hook and line into the water and then go to sleep at the edge of the water. He says that turtles and alligators never bother his feet, as his toes keep working up and down like an old-time fly butt.

Dear Arthur:

Please excuse us for publishing this private letter without your permission, but your letters are always so good that we cannot resist publishing them. As the time is brief, we will let our letter be your way of doing things. Thinking we would not be missed at the convention, we slipped off to do some visiting. But that is not your way of doing things, we must confess.

Yours truly,
The Courier Editor.
