TRUMAN TO DIRECT FOREIGN POLICY?

A row is brewing in the senate over the proposed allocation of only five places on its [foreign] [uncertain] affairs committee to Republicans as [againat] [uncertain] eight for the Democrats. Underthe Republigan majority in the [Etgthieth concgresa] [uncertain] the GOP held [arven] [uncertain] places against six for the Democrats, The Democrats held 464 per cent of the senate seal during the [Eightirth] [uncertain] congress. Jn the present congress the [Kepublicana hald 43.7—nul] [uncertain] a great difference. On the committee it ie now proposed to give the Republicans only 38 per cent of [memberahip,] [uncertain] which ts far out of line with the usual rule of proportional representation on [commiticesa—] [uncertain]

The suggestion for the disrupor- [tlonate] [uncertain] membership [probsbly] [uncertain] comes from President Truman [himeef.] [uncertain] It is in line with [hia] [uncertain] appointment of Dean Acheton [axvSecretary] [uncertain] of Atate.
