From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Who's A Foreigner?

While I'm waiting for a haircut the other day, Slim Hartman let slip with a crack about these "foreigners" who live by the depot.

"Now wait a minute, Slim," snaps Doc Sherman. "Don't forget we're all 'foreigners' more or less. Some of our families have simply been here longer than others. But even if they came over on the Mayflower, they were foreigners to the Indians."

Slim gets a little red and you could see that Doc had him. "And the reason they came here," he goes on, "was to find freedom to do and think as they wanted to so long as they didn't tramp on the rights of the other fellow."

From where I sit, America became the great land it is today through our being taken out of different people and different tastes—whether it's a taste for square dancing or waltzing, radio or movies, goat's milk or a temperate glass of sparkling beer.

Following over the session were the following from Crockett: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellis, Mrs. R. E. McConnell Jr., Mrs. Earle Bryan and Miss Olive McConnell.

Was a Surprise.

Among the pleasant Christmas remembrances received by The Courier was the holiday issue of The Crockett Courier, of Crockett, Texas, which carried a greeting from the publisher, W. W. Aiken, and staff, one of whom was Miss Maude Hall, advertising assistant. Miss Hall was formerly a member of the Elgin High School faculty and made her home here several years with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Meyer—Elgin Courier.

He was returning from a trip from San Antonio back to his base at Houston, where he is stationed, to complete his course in dentistry at the University of Texas College of Dentistry. He will take the state board exams in May. Lt. Buttry entered the army in December, 1946.

Doing Nicely.
