GOVERNOR JESTERS ADDRESS.

There were some [siatesmaniike] [uncertain] wt trances in the inaugural [addresa] [uncertain] of I

Governor Jester Tuesday.

The [thrent] [uncertain] to local attn [Individaal] [uncertain] rights that ls presented by [crpansicn] [uncertain] af federal powers is almost universal- ly recognized, but little is done about it, Almost in the same breath, execu-

Ibilities and demanding that the fed- [cra] [uncertain] government meet early federal government [rensponsibllities] [uncertain] is the only sure way of keeping in adjustment r the federal and states [bulance] [uncertain] of re- [aponsibilitics.] [uncertain] services, rights and were."

Mr. [Jenter] [uncertain] is entirely right. States and localities not only must demand that Washington sick no further con- [trol] [uncertain] over their affairs they must be equally zealous of doing their own part. Otherwise, the drift to cen- [tralization] [uncertain] will [contnue:] [uncertain] the states will find themselves paying more.and
