ON NEW LABOR BILL

GENERAL FUND

Washington, January 31.—Rep-lican senators Monday hung a "milk and water" label on President Truman's "fair deal" labor bill and presented a bitter cross-examination of supporting witnesses.

At the same time they prepared to cash in Tuesday on a glaring rift in administration ranks, calling Condition Director Cyrus Ching to testify against at least one section of the White House bill.

It became immediately clear that a principal focus of fault-finding was to be the "emergency section." This is the administration's proposal for meeting strikes in "vital industries" affecting the nation's health and safety.

The bill provides merely for a 30-day cooling off period, during which presidential boards in invest-gate causes of disputes.

Sen. Robert A. Taft (Rep.) of Ohio told reporters the administration had a "milk and water" section. The president, Taft insisted, had no general welfare powers under which he could get injunctions or seize plants in event of nationwide strikes.

Both powers are provided in the Taft-Hartley act, repeal of which was asked by Secretary of Labor Maurice

J. Tobin in a 10-point "indictment"

(The senate later in the day gave unanimous approval to Tobin's indictment.)
