CROCKETT FOURTH DISTRICT TRACK

The Crockett High Bulldogs won fourth place in the district 20-A track and field [mect] [uncertain] at [Munteville Satur-}] [uncertain] day, scoring [4] [uncertain] points. [Point] [uncertain] win-I per for Crockett were Gerald Cheney, first place in the mile run; W. [T./} Hoskins,] [uncertain] first place in the shot [put;!] [uncertain] Billy Joe Knox, accord in the [100-/¢] [uncertain] [dasb gnd] [uncertain] fourth In the broad ump; Joe rt Ariedge and [Ken-};:] [uncertain] path Caldwell, in three-way tie for second In pole vault; Terry Morrow, third in high jump; Bob King, fourth Yn 440-yard dash; Riley Pinson, fourth fn [B80-yard] [uncertain] run. The Crockett 440yard relay team was third, The [milerelay] [uncertain] team also finished third, but last, and got no points, Five schools [cowpeted,] [uncertain] with Franklin winning [fired] [uncertain]

THE WINDS HOWLED RAINS LET LOOSE?

And the winds, from the south [an6/:] [uncertain] the cast, blew throughout the night, and in the early morning the rain Precipitated [Ita] [uncertain] wetness m no unmistakable way, establishing one of our [btavicst] [uncertain] downpours, [aacnoling] [uncertain] to our oldest [inhabitanta.] [uncertain] Small damage was done by the wind. Same telephones were put out of commission and possibly some electric lights converted to po use. Perhaps some of this, however, should be laid to the rain, which was not of the light-weight kind. [Bat] [uncertain] the Courier has heard of no great, [damare]

[uncertain] done by either the wind or) the rain. The rain may have done [gome] [uncertain] good in some sections And the wind was sufficient to dispel the [fog.] [uncertain]
