RED ROSE SERVICE BY CROCKETT GIRL WINS COMPLIMENT

Jane Fuller, high school senior, originator of the now famous Red Rose Service for Homemakers, has just learned from Mrs. J. B. Hunsch, president of the Crockett High School, that her ceremony is the most successful of the kind in the state. The red rose is the national flower for the organization. In this ceremony, a narrator reads the significance of the emblem following which eight girls plant a rose for each of the eight purposes of the homemaker. Planting a rose for each purpose was the original idea of Miss Fuller, who wrote the script for the service. This will be the third time for Crockett club girls to give the ceremony; first was at their Crockett meeting which was complimented with invitation from Mrs. Natalie Clayton, area supervisor, to repeat it at the district meeting at Houston. Miss Josephine Padra, Austin, head of homemaker education in the state department of education, then invited the girls to come to Dallas. They have been told that if the service is well-performed at Dallas, there are possibilities they may be asked to Memphis, Tenn., in June for the regional meet.

CADMAN CLUB HEARS WORLD FAMED TUNES WITH LEWIS LEADER

"World Famous Tunes" was the subject made most interesting and enjoyable by the gracious leader, Mrs. W. M. Lewis, who was also the capable and efficient club secretary. The tunes were played by the club members. The club collected the program memories of days past and present were recalled.

Vocal duets by Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. C. L. Williams were "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" and "Home on the Range." Miss Kathryn Stokes sang "Ich Liebe Dich," followed by an encore. Mrs. L. L. Foote was piano accompanist for the vocal numbers after which she gave a selection, "Left Hand Caper."

Historians were Mrs. Cren Goolsby, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Mrs. Gilbert Gibson, and Miss Florence. They served delicious refreshments.

NEW CERTIFICATES AID READING LIST

Reading certificates have arrived and will be given to the county schools for presentation to students who read twenty of the prescribed list of books in the library situated in the court house. In March 1949, 225 books were checked out of the library, reported Mrs. Mae Barclay, librarian, representing an increase over the usual list. These certificates are new and have proved an inducement to pupils to do more reading. Mrs. Barclay believes that the schools will present the reading certificates at a school closing or in some other form of ceremony to encourage good reading.

South Vital Force
The West Point (Miss.) Daily Times Leader says: "Anybody who knows the South is still a vital force in the affairs of the nation, and what we lack in voting power is more than made up in the character and capability of the new voters in both houses of the congress. And someday, perhaps, the entire nation will come to appreciate the fact that the rights of the states are vital to the preservation of the principles of democracy on which the federation of sovereign states was founded."

How to Save Tax Money
According to a press dispatch, "Congress is to be urged by the Hoover Commission on government reorganization to take Uncle Sam out of the business of selling electric power to farmers."

Northern Campaign
In spite of pressure from the CIO Political Action Committee and the AFL political league, and in spite of offers from the Truman administration to give the federal government the best possible return for the power it produces, the federal government is to be urged by the Hoover Commission on government reorganization to take Uncle Sam out of the business of selling electric power to farmers."
