WORDS AND DEEDS?

So far as the United States we) know [teday] [uncertain] ia [conerned,] [uncertain] Benater [Vandepberg] [uncertain] was right in declaring at the Theddore [Ruoservelt] [uncertain] Memorlal dinner that we [wil]] [uncertain] not start war with Russia. He was right in assuring MoeCow that if war occurs, the Soviet will [bave] [uncertain] to begin tt. That ja the peace assurance in the North At- a [lantic] [uncertain] Alliance, in the inter-American

But the Michigan Senator stood on Mis lesa solid ground in his [sasumption] [uncertain] that announcement from [Mouacow] [uncertain] on four definite points would be the moat powerful urge for peace, except insofar as he qualified bis statement by insisting that [yords] [uncertain] would have to be backed by merits. As to wort's, the Soviet han bong since said most of them. It [haa] [uncertain] deplored the [Enant-Weat] [uncertain] breach, all our fault, of course. The [Soviet] [uncertain] has [aaid] [uncertain] fk time and again that it has no plans te for world or any [ather] [uncertain] conquest.
