CORONATION PLANS FOR THE LOVELADY FESTIVAL ARE MADE

Mrs. Joe Collins and Miss Willie Hawkins, teachers, have been placed in charge of the coronation at the fourth annual spring festival of the Lovelady Independent School district, which will be held on the Lovelady football field May 19 at 8 p. m.

Miss Gaye Gayle will be crowned Queen and will be escorted by Kenneth Jones, Queen of Grammar school. A number of Dukes and their escorts will also participate. Mr. Evans and Mr. Whaley will be in charge of "The March of Time," a program depicting stages in the development of American history.

All grades will be represented in the program. Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Simpson will present the first and second grades in "Put Your Little Feet" and "How-Tow-Drill." Mrs. White and Miss Calvert the third and fourth grades in "Golden Slippers" and "The Hatbox." Mrs. Westmoreland and Mrs. Maxwell the fifth and sixth grades in "The Hatbox" and "Turkey in the Straw," and Mrs. Fite and Mrs. Jeter the seventh and eighth grades in "Do Si Do" and "Old Brass Wagon" and a "Maypole Dance."

Mrs. J. D. Wooten will present her piano pupils in a recital Tuesday, May 24, in high school gym at 8 p. m.

The commencement exercises of the Lovelady public schools will begin on Sunday night, May 22, at high school gym.

Mr. P. L. Chism, deputy state superintendent, will deliver the

Two Heads Are Better Than One (Or None)

I get a kick out of buying stuff down at the hardware store. And always ask for a little advice from one of the two brothers who run it, because I know beforehand exactly what the answer will be.

Like when I needed a new garden hose. "Henry," I says, "how about this new plastic hose—it is really as good as rubber!" "Well," he says, "I'm inclined to think it is—but you'd better ask Tom."

I found Tom in back and asked him the same question. "Well," says Tom, "my opinion it is—but you'd better ask Henry." "I already have," I says, "and when you two cautious old codgers agree I've got my life on the decision."

From where I sit, you see, the decision is worth a lot—just not the other fellow's. That's why I keep saying, over and over, let's be tolerant of the other person's point of view—whether it's politics or farming—or whether you sell milk shake and be prefer a temperate glass of beer.

ADDED ATTRACTIONS BEING PLANNED FOR FIDDLERS FESTIVAL

Contestants, according to Mrs. Hattie Belle Milburn, secretary of the Fiddlers' Festival, are beginning to send in their applications to enter the festival's contest on June 10.

Of noteworthy interest to all is the rhythm band, which is being organized by a number of young men, and Buddy Brady and his Bunk House Boys of Tyler. Both groups have been consistent winners in the past, and with other top-winning bands lined up the contest is going to be a lively as well as musical one. It's worth the trip to town to hear Buddy Brady "give out" in his own particular style and manner with "Listen to the Mocking Bird." That is going to be a real treat for the crowd, said Raymond Cornelius, "and we feel sure that the throng of people out there at night will holler and cheer this one."

These applicants, with others of noteworthy fame, will make this annual event, this year, one of the most interesting and something the people won't forget.

The annual affair is sponsored by the Crockett and Houston County Chamber of Commerce, where the facilities of the office are offered and used in several months preliminary work to

Women now find 2-way help for old problem

What to do for women's oldest problem, functional monthly pain? Many a girl and woman has found the answer in Caspers 3-way help. You see, Caspers may make things less easier for you in either of two ways: (1) started 3 days before "your time" and taken as directed on the label, it should help relieve functional monthly pain; (2) taken throughout the month like a tonic, it should improve your appetite, aid digestion, and thus help hold up your readiness for the trying days to come. Caspers is scientifically prepared and absolutely tested. If you suffer "at those certain times," get Caspers today.

HOME COMING AT OLD ZION CEMETERY

May 6, Mother's Day, was homecoming day at Old Zion cemetery. The crowd began to gather about 9:30 and by noon was a large crowd. Friends met who had not met since childhood days and many precious memories were talked over again, as, at most of us could look and see the little mound where we had a dear loved one placed there many years ago. It made us want to re-visit our lives so we could meet that precious loved one gone on before in heaven.

Brother Raymond Craig made a fine talk on mother's love for children in home. At 10:30 and at 11 Brother Blackman preached, and sang service until noon hour. Then a basket lunch was spread with many fine things to eat. God is so good to bless the toil of our hands that we might be fed. God sends the sunshine and rain, then the harvest is good. We after we thanked God for every good thing comes from God's beautiful hand, every person ate to his heart's content and plenty of food left.

Then the ladies were cleared away and Mrs. C. F. Hargett talked on "The altar in our homes." She urged the old fathers and mothers who had been having family affairs during the rearing of their families to continue, and she urged young fathers and mothers to start family affairs while their children are still small; then, she says when we have reared our children grown, the children will say, "well, I loved the old family altar, where Dad and Mom would call us all around them—Jack and Joe and Tim and Ted. Then boys, moving years after Dad and Mom have passed on, talk to each other and say, 'I want my home to be just like the one I used to know; then, she said, will our family circle be broken in heaven?'"

COOK STRAWBERRY PRESERVES LIGHTLY

The color and flavor of strawberry preserves are easily destroyed by heat. Hence, in making preserves it is well to cook them only a short time.

Method 1: Select large, firm, tart berries. Wash, drain, and remove caps. For each pound of fruit use 1 pound of sugar. Combine the fruit and the sugar in alternate layers and let stand 8 to 10 hours or overnight before cooking. While heating, stir the mixture carefully. Boil rapidly for 15 to 20 minutes or until the syrup is somewhat thick, taking care to prevent burning. Remove the preserves at once into hot sterilized jars and seal.

Method 2: In this method the smaller, less perfect berries are put all out to be used for preserves. Cook these berries, then stir them while cooking them for about 15 minutes. To each pound of choice prepared berries allow one-half cup of sugar and 1 pound of sugar. Add the sugar to the hot berry mix and continue to heat slowly until the sugar is entirely dissolved. Drop the berries into the sugar mixture for 15 to 20 minutes, then stir the mixture. Remove the preserves at once into hot sterilized jars and seal.

PROCEEDINGS IN DISTRICT COURT

An injunction hearing in Houston county district court, styled Mrs. Theo Greth et al. vs. Strat Richards et al., and involving a fence, was postponed Saturday until today (Thursday) at 9 a. m. This was the second postponement of the hearing, which action was taken after the court sustained exceptions to some of the pleadings in the plaintiff's petition. The court ruled that it was without jurisdiction when a motion for a new trial in the case of Rosella Cook vs. Palestine Grain Company was brought up, for reasons that name the court more than 30 days prior to date of hearing and was not presented for action within that time.

Grassberry represented the plaintiff, on whose behalf the motion for a new trial was filed, and defendants were represented by Pitzer Garrison of Lufkin, member of a Lufkin legal firm.

District Judge J. Melvin Johnston of Palestine, presiding, heard pleas, arguments and decrees in the following cases:

Dorothy E. Combs vs. Alphonse J. Combs.

Jessie J. Sims vs. Little Pearl Carroll, Sims.

Mary Claire English vs. Charles Reed English.

FRIEND MILDEW ASKS QUESTIONS

When Friend Mildew asked us Saturday if we knew anything, our answer was "no." We never had a special inquiry Saturday—he wanted to know if a senator is lower than a congressman and if there is anything lower than that. He said he had an invitation from a senator to visit him in Washington and he would be glad to first appoint him on a committee to visit some other country, so that his expense account would be paid by the government, and he would not care whether the senator was in Washington or not, as long as he would make a government expense of all his entertaining. He also asked the senator if the government would insure his return home if he thinks they will, because the government is going broke, and he would like to have a "follow-up" for the poor man now. He does not want the trip to embarrass him financially, as he has had plenty of that at home. While traveling a shirt for the Washington trip, he says Mrs. Mildew asked him in the excitement and hoped that she would have him off her mind by last time. He returns, which she hopes won't happen again.

TRUMAN'S ADMINISTRATION

President Truman wants higher wages, shorter working hours, increased costs and increased prices because wages mean more withholding taxes for the federal government. Shorter hours mean less production, higher costs and higher prices. He makes every employer a tax collector because he will not trust those he professes to love so dearly to send to the government their withholding taxes. For every voting employer there are several voting employees.
