capital, and the Democrats cannot accuse the Republicans of playing that game alone.

Senator Tydings hae charged that the Republicans, who have been beaten back In [their] [uncertain] efforts to trim current appropriations bills by per cent, were not in earnest bul sought political advantage. He proposed in turn that after all the money [bille] [uncertain] had been passed, the minority party support the [Democratic] [uncertain] proposal that a)) [sppropriations] [uncertain] be cut by at least r cent, t In, of course, plain that the Re- publicans sight political profit In their efforts to reduce the national budget There is a [gtowing] [uncertain] come everywhere except among some [bureaucrate] [uncertain] that congress a voting the naton into bankruptcy.
