FIRST LUG OF BRUCE PLUMS AIR-MAILED

Crockett's first, and probably the nation's first, lug of Bruce plums for the 1949 season were shipped out by air-mail Wednesday to Austin Co. in Chicago by Carrol's and Darby. The first lug was gathered in the orchard of Melvin Darby, and it is expected that by the week end more of the plums will begin moving with the shipping going into full swing the middle of next week.

The lug that was shipped out by air Wednesday will be auctioned on the Chicago market—Graveland Messenger.

Smith-Murchison Wins.

Smith-Murchison Hardware defeated Keeland Hardware in softball at City Park Tuesday night 12 to 2. W. H. Holcomb, on the mound for the winners, coasted in behind a long lead. Charles Ray Sharp, pitching for Keeland's, received only mediocre support. The game was actually an

COMMUNITY NEWS OF PRAIRIE POINT

Our homecoming Sunday was a big success. It was a beautiful day and there was a large crowd. Mrs. Conner of Trinity gave us a good talk and Mr. Sherrill Shaw of Houston, who also gave a fine talk. We had visitors from Houston, Odessa, Rockwood, Altus, Oklahoma, Highlands, Wharton, Huntsville, Nacogdoches, Kemah, Palatka, Waco, Trinity, Crockett and Loveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stunt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parker of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Petty of Austin visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parker, last weekend.

Mrs. Alice Ramsey of Altus, Okla., is visiting Mrs. W. J. Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rhodes at their home last week.

Mr. Joe Hall and sons of Wharton visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Epper, last week and was here for the homecoming.

The home economics girls left Monday on their trip, their destination being Monterrey, Mexico. Those going from this community were: Marie Kinsell, Mattie Carroll, Wanda M. Mann, Mary Walker and Betty Joyce Rhodes. Mr. and Mrs. White and Miss Willie Hawkins, sponsors.

Mr. Bill Lohman, just back from China, visited in the W. H. Rhodes home last week.

Mrs. J. J. Shaw was a business visitor in Houston Tuesday.

Betty Joyce Rhodes visited in Palatka Monday through Wednesday of last week.

Capt. Kincaid, Student.

Capt. John I. Kincaid of Crockett is listed among the students expecting to attend the Fourth Army Area Military Intelligence school at Fort Sam Houston beginning June 12 to run two weeks.

Course in combat and strategic intelligence, duties of officers, terrain and counter intelligence and special tactics by means of lecture, film and practical exercises will be taught by a very able faculty, according to information by Major Ray W. Mims.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Boseman were in Beaumont over Sunday at the hospital with Mr. Boseman's father, W. E. Boseman, who is now improving.

Miss Joyce Thomason, who has been teaching in the Henderson schools, has returned home for the vacation season.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Henderson are hosts this week to their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Henderson and son, Allen Ray, of Midland and Mrs. Irene Bailey of Houston.

ROGERS NEW MASTER MASONIC LODGE

J. L. Rogers was elected worshipful master of Lethrop Lodge No. 21, A. F. & A. M., at the annual election of officers Tuesday night. He will succeed C. A. Johnson. Other officers elected Tuesday night include Joe Worthing, senior warden; Edwin Arnold, junior warden; Thos. Smith, senior deacon; Marvin Bongerger, junior deacon; Eubergre Lively, treasurer; W. M. Bishop, secretary, and T. E. Kildan, treasurer.

The new officers will be installed on June 24.

Enter Air-Condition Field.

"Better late than never," says the old adage. So it is with Smith-Murchison Hardware Co., who though late are now entering the field of air conditioning. They announce that they have taken as their choice the York line. They are now ready to talk York, to demonstrate York and to sell York. The usual Smith-Murchison guarantee which goes with all that they sell will also go with this product.

Initiated in Shrine.

Three Crockett Masons were initiated into the Shrine at a ceremonial held in Galveston May 28. They are George Caton, Smith H. Wooters and Glover Morrow. Among the Shriners attending the ceremonial were Dr. J. S. Wooters and Ed Arnold of Crockett and Dr. John H. Wooters of Houston. The new Shriners are members of Crockett Commandery No. 91, Knights Templar.

Correction.

Mrs. Roy Petty and not Mrs. Roy Skipper was co-hostess Tuesday, May 21, at the Morrow home luncheon for a season's brides with Mrs. T. E. Walden, Mrs. C. H. Callaway, Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. G. H. Henderson. Honorees were Mrs. Jerry Ellis, Mrs. Joe Frank Leedler, Miss Hilda Lavee Lake and Miss Jane Hook.

Regular Services Sunday.

Rev. C. M. Ashmore has announced that regular services including Sunday school and preaching will begin at the new, incomplete First Christian church Sunday morning. Formal opening will be held later when everything has been finished, including the art windows, he said.

R. W. Knight, Crockett's first manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Knight visited friends here Sunday on their way to attend the Texas Chamber of Commerce managers convention in Houston June 6 and 7.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Denison of Baytown were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Henderson.

BRYAN JUNIORS SPANK CROCKETT

The Bryan American Legion Junior baseball team romped to a 12 to 1 victory over the Crockett youngsters Tuesday night at Bomber Field in Bryan. Hank Damron, starting Crockett pitcher, walked nine batters and gave up three hits in four innings. Bobby Beard, who relieved, allowed one base on balls and hit one batter, while striking out seven, in three rounds. He gave up no hits, but was charged with four runs because of fielding miscues.

Two Bryan pitchers limited Crockett to one hit in eight innings, agreed game length; hit two batters and walked three, while striking out 11 and getting good fielding support.

Health-Murchison Wins.

The Smith-Murchison Hardware softball team dropped a tough Tri-County League game to Barry's Department Store of Humble on the Country Campus diamond Tuesday night, 2 to 1. The game was strictly a pitcher's battle between W. H. Holcomb of the Crockett team, who allowed no hits, and Ralph Rutherford of Barry's, who allowed one hit. Holcomb got that hit and brought in the only Smith-Murchison run.

Keeland's Win.

The Keeland Hardware softball team noosed out Elliott's Humble Station at City Park Tuesday night 10 to 14, in a slugfest match, to notch their second victory in the Tri-County League schedule. Charles Ray Sharp, 16-year-old leaver, was on the mound six innings for Keeland's, with Sonny Vaden finishing.
