MEMBERS ASSURED FORWARD PROGRESS BY CHAM. COMMERCE

"I like Crockett and its people and hope that I shall meet and know each one of you better in the near future."

B. Bert Sherron, manager of Crockett and Houston County Chamber of Commerce, makes this statement in a new letter he has sent out to each member. He asks them and other citizens to call at his office at the city hall to get acquainted.

To explain "What is the chamber of commerce and what does it do?" Mr. Sherron's letter states: It is an organization of business and professional people united to promote commercial, agricultural, industrial and civic interests of Crockett and Houston county.

25 YEARS AGO IN HOUSTON COUNTY

The following items are taken from the Crockett files of 25 years ago this week:

Candidates for office in Houston county set speaking dates for Augus, Beloit, Kennard, Radloff, Wechs, Grapeland, Lowndes, Creek, Weldon, Porter Springs, Lufkin and Crockett. The Confederate Veterans had a well-attended reunion in Crockett on Tuesday.

Mode Barber announced for commissioner of precinct 2.

W. E. Turner announced a city cleanup for June 24, 1924.

Yancy Merwarder, in a letter from Washington, predicted defeat of the Republican ticket for U. S. Senator.

Major Staley W. Mims leaves for Virginia, where he was killed in a plane crash in Virginia, where he was killed in a plane crash in Virginia, where he was killed in a plane crash in Virginia.

"WILL I GET A NEW DOLL, TOO, DADDY?"

Dolls or davenport, all your household belongings, old and new, should be covered by enough insurance. Don't forget the value of your home and everything is it higher today than ever!

SUPT. JORDAN READS FINE SCHOOL REPORT TO BOARD MEMBERS

Supt. W. L. Jordan read Thursday night at the Crockett school board meeting a report from the state accrediting committee with observations, recommendations and comments to the school officials. P. L. Chiam, deputy state superintendent of districts 12, signed the statement, which read as follows:

"This is an outstanding school doing an excellent job in a commendable manner. It has had many annual reports consistent with the foregoing statement. This school has made progress each year as far as the permit. All concerned are to be commended for the educational interest manifested in the schools and community program."

JUST A WORD WITH OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Our list of renewals and subscriptions this week contains twenty names against thirty-six last week. Twenty is a good list any week and is very much appreciated. The following will please accept our thanks for this fine list:

A. L. Patrick, Crockett, Tex.
C. C. Goolsby, Crockett, Tex.
R. C. English, Kennard.
D. Ned H. Stephens, Mules Lake, Washington.

MIMS ASSIGNED CAMP HOOD DUTY

Major Staley W. Mims leaves this week for two weeks of active duty at Camp Hood, Texas. His work will be devoted to construction work. Major Mims, who has lived in Crockett since 1920 has had previous army engineer experience. During the war he was post engineer in charge of maintenance repairs for utility operation at Shreveport Holding and its commitment point, at Fort Bliss and at the San Antonio Arsenal.

FAIR BOARD MEET WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Alvin Hall, president, announced a meeting of the Houston County Fair Board for Wednesday night, June 22 at the City Hall. Work has about been completed on the fair catalog and it will be turned over to the printers. Advertising to defray the expenses was solicited by City Marshal, L. C. Yales. Secretary of the board is Mrs. Hattie Belle Milburn.

WOMEN GRADUATES MAY BECOME WACS

WAC Officer Candidate school will accept applications from women graduates of colleges and universities until July 1, announced Col. Abbott, executive for the Texas Military District. Successful completion of the course gives women commissions as second lieutenants in the Organized Reserve Corps until assignment to active duty. Commissions will be granted to women doctors, dentists and veterinarians in the Army Medical Corps with pay allowance the same as that for men.

CROCKETT CEMETERY ASSOCIATION PLANS BEAUTIFICATION

G. Q. King Sr. has just announced completion of the initial steps in a beautification project for the Crockett Cemetery Association, which included having a plan drawn by Staley W. Mims. The plan calls for complete landscaping with trees and shrubs on the area immediately west of the cemetery.

Mr. King expressed great pride in the progress of the association in keeping the cemetery looking attractive. The cooperative plan of financing makes the expense light and takes the worry from the shoulders of the few. "I think," he said, "that our cemetery is taken care of much more nicely and at less expense than many other cemeteries larger than Crockett. Looks of this cemetery compare favorably with those I have seen in travel about the country."

VON DOENHOFF HEAD CHAMBER COMMERCE NEW MEMBER DRIVE

Robert von Doenhoff heads a new membership contact group of the Crockett and Houston County Chamber of Commerce, announced Herbert Callaway, president. Invitations will be made to both new and old business firms to join. The finance committee has in the past been responsible for enlisting new members, and Mr. Callaway, but in the new program a strong active committee will serve on this activity.

LEGION JUNIOR BASEBALL DISTRICT

At a meeting in Buffalo Friday night, called by Irvor Berrett, district athletic officer, plans were made for determining the district baseball team of American Legion Junior baseball. Attending were Manager J. T. Riviere, manager of the Crockett team; George H. Pollard, manager, and George Pratt and Ed Glenn, coaches of the Palestine team, and Bennett. Houston's athletic officer did not arrive for the meeting.

METHODISTS FILL CHURCH WELCOMING PASTOR AND FAMILY

Methodists filled the church Sunday to welcome their new pastor, Rev. Leslie Le Grand. Other churches of the city dismissed their congregations for the Sunday night service at the First Methodist church. Rev. Le Grand's morning topic was "Memories Left to Us by Christ," his evening topic was "The Mind of Christ." He introduced Mrs. Le Grand and said that their three children are age 6, 4 and eight months.

He expressed great pleasure at being the pastor of "one of the largest and finest churches in Texas Methodism." From the congregation, there was built in 1903 "How many wonderful preachers and laymen have passed through these doors," he said.
