IDEAL FOR JULY EATING.

Meals that cook quickly and require only one utensil are important to homemakers during warm summer days. Robt. Stagers, widely known home economist, suggests a broiler meal of spiced ham and tomato halves. For this mixed grill, ready-to-serve canned ham loaf straight from the can may itself be sliced 1/2-inch thick, dusted with butter or margarine, then placed in the broiler. With the rack adjusted so its surface of the spiced ham is about three inches from the heat, the meat will broil slowly in the moderate heat without need of constant attention.

When the meat is broiled on one side and ready to turn, tomatoes are sent in half, topped with butter and placed on the broiler rack along with the meat to cook slowly until they are nicely browned.

In place of tomatoes, Miss Stagers suggests using cooked carrot strips and asparagus or cauliflower sprinkled with grated cheese. Apple rings, orange slices, apricot or peach halves or pineapple chunks, also make delicious broiler accompaniments for the meat.

A mixed grill menu can be made complete with a large loaf of potato chips and a hot vegetable such as corn on the cob or buttered peas.

For a cooling dessert, lime or lemon sherbet can be served with freshly baked refrigerator cookies.

Uncle Sam Says

That old saw about opportunity being overlooked is true. The new version is: Opportunity knocks but thrice. Weeks later you have the opportunity to do something about it which you want in the future. All it takes is a little slice of that porkchop invested regularly in U. S. Savings Bonds. There are two ways to make that future secure—the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bonds-Monthly Plan where you bank. In ten years, every $5 invested brings back $4.

ONE BILLION IN FIFTY YEARS

The one billionth bearing turned out by the world's largest manufacturer of tapered roller bearings is a feature of the Open House held by The Timken Roller Bearing Company as they celebrate fifty years in the business of smoothing the progress of American industry.

An interested visitor, pretty Rhylis Lee, watching Harry Craig make a final check on a large mill bearing in the special inspection department, was amazed when told the bearings were checked to tolerances of thousandths of an inch. "Not like cooking when I use a pinch of this and a pinch of that," said Miss Lee. "And the final inspection is the satisfaction that shows on the faces of those eating." Little Judy Cramer, 4 1/2-year-old daughter, thought the bearings were wheels for overseas roller skates, and wanted a set.

Timken started making bearings when huggies were the principal mode of transportation and the company has grown, in fifty years, to see the stage where practically all wheeled vehicles, from roller skates to locomotives, run on anti-friction, metal bearings.

U. S. RANGER ORRIS HANSON ASKS PUBLIC COOPERATE

U. S. Ranger Orris W. Hanson is expecting a record turnout of folks seeking recreation and relaxation on the Neches District of the Big Creek National Forest this summer. The number of users this summer is already running ahead of the number last year.

This heavy use is placing a strain on the budget with which the ranger must clean, repair and maintain the latrine lake and Pine Springs recreation areas. Ranger Hanson is asking the cooperation of all folks who use the areas to help keep them clean and neat. This will not only add to the enjoyment of local folks, but it will go a long way toward creating a good impression on Houston county and the state of Texas on tourists from other states.

For those who are wondering how they can best cooperate with the ranger, he suggests that you burn all papers, leaves, etc. and put them in the garbage can. Do not burn them in the garbage pits or trash cans. He asks everyone's help in being careful with fire, cigarettes, matches, etc. To prevent wood fires requires the cooperation of everyone.

Ham Triangles.

Ham centers these tempting individual triangles—a wonderful way to use leftover ham and pastry. The ham along with onion and apple is put through a food chopper. For the triangular covering, roll pie dough out thin and cut it into squares. Place a generous helping of the ham mixture in the center of each square, then fold the square into a triangle. Press the edges of the dough together and bake the ham triangles in a moderate oven.

Single Loaf Surprise.

A meat loaf in individual style. Just season the ground meat as usual—a few raisins will give it a different touch, and form the meat into little patties. One patty goes in the bottom of each greased muffin tin, covered with a thin wedge of mild cheese, then topped with another patty. The "muffins" bake in a slow oven.

Hot Day Special.

Leftover beef and gravy can be a joy for the summer cook. Give the beef and gravy a second chance by making a special spark with curry powder; then add the dried beef and cook until the flavors are blended. The curried meat makes an attractive serving over snowy white rice.

Lamb Variation.

Ground allspice and chopped parsley give a tangy touch to lamb patties. For more variation, marinate the patties in lemon juice or salad oil for about 30 minutes before cooking.

CHAMBER COMMERCE SPONSORS TRACTOR IMPLEMENT DISPLAY

Albert Brewer, chairman of the agriculture committee of the chamber of commerce, announced today the first in a series of trade promotions over the county, sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

The tractor and implement show will be held Wednesday, August 3rd, around the county court house.

"This central location will be more accessible to the public and will be the 'center ring' in Crockett on that day," Brewer explained.

The seven implement dealers in Crockett will display their equipment and will secure many new implements that will be shown for the first time in this area.

All during the day movies showing the uses of tractors and assorted implements will be shown in the county court room at the rear house.

Activities during the day will be open to all, free of charge. The display is made possible by the implement dealers of Crockett and the Crockett and Houston County Chamber of Commerce.

Knox Twins Homewreck.

Misses Alma Loyce and Betty Joyce Knox, two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Knox, are attending summer school in Colorado. They report by letter to the family that although it is a new and cool Colorado they would like to be back in Crockett.

Miss Alma Jean Johnson will leave Saturday on her vacation to Dallas and other points to be gone about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fughman of Houston spent the week-end in Crockett with Mrs. P. L. Fughman.

Archer, one of the dissolved school districts due to lack of sufficient number of pupils to justify a school, has been annexed to Crockett all of the area south of the highway leading into Crockett, by petition of the school board of Archer. All of the area north of the highway leading into Crockett has by the petition, asked for annexation to Kennard.

Article VIII of Senate Bill 116 has declared dormant all school districts with fewer than 40 scholars enrolled. These dormant school districts have been notified and been permitted to seek annexation to some other school district. Archer is the first of the schools to seek such annexation, according to an announcement made by Marcus Mason, county superintendent.

Districts declared dormant include Douglas, Shady Grove, Granger, Well don, Perilla, Wagon, Lovelife, New Prospect and Haystack Springs.

Here, Tomato Dressing.

Here's tomato French dressing with crisp bacon bits for successful salad days. To prepare, slightly add condensed tomato soup and minced onion to your regular French dressing, then right before serving add the crisp cooked bacon shivers.

Leftover Magic.

Creamed ham chops and tender asparagus tips form an appealing combination. Serve them over baked potatoes or as the unforgettably filling in tender brown popovers.

Crop Outlook Promising.

The recent rains have helped the crop outlook wonderfully. Whether you measure this corn outlook in bushels or gallons, it is most promising. And the cotton outlook, as in yield, is not bad, although the price outlook is not altogether what was hoped.

A headline says, "Highway Truck Drivers Have Annual Meet." But headlines indicate that they meet of more than annually. Their annual and friendly meetings may be only when they get organized without crying. Last the Palestine freighters' wife, who had been buying her meat in Grapeland, told the engineer when leaving home that she was not to forget the meat at Grapeland. On returning through Grapeland the engineer had no meat, and she there was to meet to be considered.

BEGINNING OF MISSOURI-PACIFIC

On July 6, 1951, in the din of one of the noisiest celebrations St. Louis has ever known, the first spade of earth was turned on the banks of Chouteau's pond and construction of the first railroad west of the Mississippi river was started. It was the Pacific Railroad, direct ancestor of the present day Missouri Pacific Lines which, on the Nation's birthday, will be within two years of its first century of existence.

In keeping with its approach to maturity, the Missouri Pacific Lines announced that it has commissioned one of the country's outstanding biographers of the day, Dr. John Baker, to write a history of the railroad which, because of its position as the first railroad west of the Mississippi, has had much to do with making the West and Southwest its serving a dominating section of the country.

Dr. Baker's two has won Guggenheim fellowships and as a result of each he has produced sparkling and definite biographies—"Christo-

NAT PATTON VISITS AUNT AT JAYTON; LAST OF FOURTEEN

Nat Patton Sr. left Tuesday night for a visit to Jayton in Kent county, Texas, to see the last surviving member of his father's 15 brothers and sisters, his Aunt Cora Gardner, now around 85 years old. Mr. Patton is living on some of the original Patton purchase of land in the league which, because of its position as the first railroad west of the Mississippi, has had much to do with making the West and Southwest its serving a dominating section of the country.

This James H. Patton came to Texas in 1828 from Giles county, Tenn. The birthplace of Cora and of Jay Crockett. Davy, in fact, married the widow of one of Grandfather Patton's brothers. "Aunt Cora" is the twin sister of the late Billy Patton, father of Mrs. Oscar Maxwell. She is the

STEEL DECLINES LABOR'S DEMANDS

New York, N. Y., July 6.—In discussing the reply given today by the steel-making subsidiaries of United States Steel to the labor demands of the United Steelworkers of America—CIO, Benjamin F. Fairless, president of United Steelworkers of America—made the following statement:

"After some days of collective bargaining negotiations, United States Steel has declined the proposal of the United Steelworkers of America—CIO for an increase in the rates of pay of its steel workers. United States Steel firmly believes that there is no sound or proper justification for the granting by it of such a wage increase at this time. The present average hourly earnings of steel workers of United States Steel are among the highest in American industry. Average hourly earnings of such employees were $1,900 in May, 1949, as compared with $1,855 for the year 1948—an increase of 97.7 per cent as compared with an increase of 69.9 per cent in the cost of living over the same period. A demand for higher rates of pay can no longer be justified on the ground of continuing increases in the cost of living. Every one knows that the cost of living, particularly food costs, has gone down materially since its high in September, 1948.

"The granting now of a further wage increase by United States Steel undoubtedly would encourage a general fourth round of wage increases throughout American industry. With business now receding in almost every industry across the land, nothing could be more damaging to the economy of the nation than generally to increase labor costs at this time. Higher prices for almost all commodities would be the inevitable result of such a general wage increase. Higher prices are certain to result in increased customer resistance, decreased production, and greater unemployment. In these times all parties concerned should cooperate to retard, rather than to deepen and prolong, the present business decline.
