BIG SHOW PLANNED FOR DEEP FREEZER USE THURSDAY AT 8

Miss Edith Bates, home economist for the International Refrigeration of Houston, gave a home freezer show preview Wednesday night of last week in preparation for the big event coming up tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock at Crockett Truck & Implement Co. on the Houston highway.

The show was then for the less than 100 employees and their families from Crockett, Grapeland and Telford to acquaint them with the principles of home deep freeze refrigeration so that they may answer questions about the big show Thursday night to which every one is invited, according to Bob Mutton, manager of the refrigeration department, and Henry Wedemeyer, manager of Crockett Truck & Implement Co.

ON KEEPING CUT FLOWERS FRESH

It is well worth while to study methods of keeping cut flowers fresh and attractive. The lasting quality of the blossoms depends on the stage of the development as well as on the skill of the cutter. Zinnias and marigolds will remain fresh much longer if they are cut when they are full blown, while roses and peonies are among the flowers that should be cut in bud. The central disk of the zinnia should be firm and the petals should be fully open.

The flowers should never be pulled or broken from their stalks, but should be cut on a slant with a sharp knife. The cutting should be done in the cool of the day, preferably in the morning, before the sun has had time to shine directly on them.

ASSISTANCE THAT WAS APPRECIATED

The Courier is under obligations to the Crockett Democrat for neighborly assistance rendered last week. On account of illness, we were short one man in our office last week. On the day of the next day, Monday, when everything, everybody, was closed up and a dead stillness reigned, the Crockett Democrat came to the rescue. It was mighty helpful. In the Crockett office, we tried to crowd the work of four days into three days, but failed. Several of our readers, however, came to the rescue. Mr. Davis of the Democrat rendered some valuable and neighborly assistance, enabling us to get into the mail Friday morning, about a day late. Without Mr. Davis' assistance, the Courier would have been later, and he will please accept our thanks.

KIHLE, SIMS AND LEE ENJOY VACATION TRIP

Miss Anna Kihle enjoyed a recent vacation trip back to San Marcos, her home and place of employment fifteen years ago, when she accompanied Mrs. Vera Sims and Mrs. A. Lee as far as San Marcos on their trip to San Antonio.

Miss Kihle reported having a nice visit with some former Crockett people while there: Mrs. Ella Westberry, now manager of the chamber of commerce at San Marcos, and Herbert Nix, superintendent of Southland Ice Co. there, and Mrs. Sims and Mrs. Lee visited the family of Benton Sims and Mrs. Sims, the former Miss Marie Lee.

Windy sure "Stopped The Show"!

The other night a bunch of us were over at Judge Cunningham's watching a swell variety program on his new television set. It came in late, but just when the screen got a little lively.

Before the Judge could touch the knob to bring it into focus, old Windy Taylor starts looking around with the intense concentration, "I can fix that!" he says.

Windy fixed it all right. He "stopped the show" for us, and here Ellis had to come over and do a $20 repair job. I understand.

WILCOX FAMILY MEET FOR ANNUAL REUNION TENT WEEK

Bringing out tents and camping for a week on the old home place, the family of George and Jennie Wilcox, official title, have just completed their third annual family reunion in what used to be known as the Bear Creek community. This is the first complete reunion of the family in seventeen years, the youngest, Middle Mae, now Mrs. J. W. Prewitt of Cleveland, Ohio, being present for the first time in that time.

Each year in the week of July 4 the family gathers at the grove and spring back of the original family home where in olden days the washplace was. The house is gone now, but they bring tents. During the week they buy themselves as providing food for the table. They cut beef steaks, pick grapes for jelly, fish and hunt, cook and eat. Extra-curricular activities include swimming, fishing, and playing tennis. They also have a picnic for the table. They cut beef steaks, pick grapes for jelly, fish and hunt, cook and eat. Extra-curricular activities include swimming, fishing, and playing tennis.

Family members present were Mr. and Mrs. Preston Wilcox and sons, Henry and John, of Murfreesboro, Tenn.; Mrs. Lewis Wilcox of Leno, Texas; Mrs. Pruitt of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. and Mrs. Wilcox of Leno, Texas; Mrs. Jean of Leno, Texas; and Mrs. Wilcox of Leno, Texas.

ON KEEPING CUT FLOWERS FRESH

It is well worth while to wets methods of keeping cut flowers and attractive. The lasting [qualitica] [uncertain] of the blossoms depend on the star of the development as well as on the [akill] [uncertain] of the cutter. Zinnias and marigolds [wil]] [uncertain] remain fresh much longer if they [gre] [uncertain] cut when they are full blown, while roses and [petunia®] [uncertain] are among the flowers that should be" cut in bud. The central disk of the zinnia should be firm and the petals should be fully open

The flowers should never be pulled or broken from their stalks, but should be cut op as [alant] [uncertain] with a sharp knife. The cutting should be done in the" cool of the day preferably in the morning, before the sun has had time:

to [ahine] [uncertain] directly on them.

The items of the blossoms should be plunged into deep water ant set in a cool, airy but not drafty place for several hours before they are ar- ranged. Sometimes it ia advisable:

to recut the [atemé] [uncertain] before they are.

put in the water, particularly if the cutting has been done hurriedly. The lower leaves, which will decay and foul the water, should be removed

Buds of morning-glorics can be cut the night before and placed in water to open for the next day. In [thie] [uncertain] oo way, royrring-glories can be used for the decoration of breakfast table or luncheon table.

[Hibiscus] [uncertain] blooms [wil]] [uncertain] remain fresh for hours without being placed in water. These flowers are attractive for arrangements in shallow contain- ere. In Florida, arrangements are made by using pine needles for stems, attaching the pine needles to the 1 [bluasoms.] [uncertain] A masked [arrangrenent] [uncertain] of
