The difficulty in the wage situation is that many labor leaders feel that in order to hold their jobs they must get for their members a little more wage increase every year. Of course they know that this cannot go on forever. They should know that they will hold their jobs better in the end by not asking for an increase in wages than by experiencing a bust.

First May Be Last.

Friend Millard writes to ask, "Which was first—the hen or the egg?" He says that Mrs. Millard contends that the hen was first, or else there couldn't have been an egg. But that is not correct. If there had not been an egg, there could not have been a hen. It is true that if that hen scratches up Mrs. Millard's garden again, there won't be any question about which was first.

SHERRON SPOKER FOR LION LUNCHEON MEMBERS RESPONSE

Hert Sherron, guest speaker at the Tuesday luncheon of the Lions Club at the Crockett hotel, gave a report of the chamber of commerce managers meeting from which he has just returned. It was at Dallas. He talked at length with the Lions and called for a number of replies.

Mr. Sherron warned of the dangers to which the present Washington administration is leading the nation with promises of giving something for nothing which is the end result of the chamber of commerce. He said that the chamber of commerce is not a charity and that it is not a government agency. He said that the chamber of commerce is a voluntary organization and that it is not a government agency.

Mr. Sherron was the guest of Will Sherron, who with Judge Ray Baker, now in California attending a road meeting, had charge of the program. Mr. Sherron presented a program of the chamber of commerce, which was a very interesting and informative one. He said that the chamber of commerce is a voluntary organization and that it is not a government agency.

William Winkler was a guest of Mr. Sherron, who with Judge Ray Baker, now in California attending a road meeting, had charge of the program. Mr. Sherron presented a program of the chamber of commerce, which was a very interesting and informative one. He said that the chamber of commerce is a voluntary organization and that it is not a government agency.
