STRONG RESOLUTION BY MINISTERS ASSOCIATION

At the monthly meeting of the Ministers' Association a full attendance was present. Rev. Ashmore, the new president, presided.

On account of the general publicity in daily papers regarding the question of the separation of church and state, the association felt constrained to give to the public its conviction about this current issue.

American Evangelical and Protestant churches have, from the very beginning of our nation's life, stood like a stone wall for the principle of separation of church and state in the United States. We have with vigor protested against the state giving any financial aid to the church. The present practice of our federal and some state governments in providing funds for Roman Catholic parochial schools is, in our judgment, a violation of the American constitution, which practices we deplore.

Because the historic evangelical and protestant churches have, in the past, stood firm on this principle, we feel that it is our responsibility to call to the attention of our community the present trends on the part of the Roman Catholic church and our federal government toward breaking down this basic principle of separation of church and state.

Ministers of the four churches represented in the association have resolved to put forth every effort to bring this transgression of the American constitution, and we call on all true citizens of our community to join in this effort.

On the fifth Sunday night in October, October 20, at a union meeting of the churches represented in the association will be held. At that time the great truths of evangelical and protestant churches will be presented by an outstanding minister of our state. The moral and spiritual foundation for true democracy in America came from these historical churches. It is our desire to reemphasize in the life of this community these great truths upon which the nation was built, and to challenge our community to rededication to these enduring foundations for a free government. You will be advised as to the time, place and speaker for this occasion in the near future.

Plans were made for a union Thanksgiving service on Wednesday night before Thanksgiving day. Rev. Leslie LeGrand closed the meeting with prayer.

Signed: Rev. C. P. Owen, Rev. A. B. Lee and Committee.

Richard Knight, formerly of Crockett, spoke to a group of merchants at the city hall Wednesday morning. He had a display of his own invention, Knight's Float Frames, which he manufactures at his home town, Wichita Falls, for decorating cars to run in parades on special occasions.

The chamber of commerce, he suggested, could purchase the franchise for $125. This would entitle them to a use of his blue prints and suggestions for ten years. They could manufacture the float frames and sell them to merchants in the county and make a small profit for the chamber of commerce.

METHODIST LADIES HOLD CIRCLE MEET WITH 56 ATTENDING

The United Nations furnished the program material for the Women's Society of Christian Service in its four monthly circle meetings Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning with 56 ladies at the combined set of meetings.

Mrs. J. G. Beasley's circle was charmingly entertained in the home of Mrs. Claude Brown with eleven ladies present.

Mrs. C. B. Keeland was hostess for fifteen members of the Wakefield circle. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Mabel Hall assisted by Mesdames Spide, Morrow, Capitan and Keeland.

Mrs. W. M. Lewis circle met with Mrs. T. E. Walden as hostess. Following the devotion by Mrs. Chatterton, Mesdames Jake Curry, W. H. Sanders and J. C. Shottwell gave the study lesson to the fourteen members attending.

Tuesday morning circle met in the home of Mrs. C. H. Callaway with eleven ladies attending. All circles had social hours with refreshments.

LARGER RECEIPTS OF LIVESTOCK

The receipts at the Crockett livestock auction Tuesday were larger than the previous week on both cattle and hogs. The cattle market showed some strength over last week's market, especially good quality heavy calves and good heavy bulls.

Cows and Calves: Good quality young cows and calves at side sold to a good advantage, while old cows and calves at side brought no more than the price of each animal could bring.

Bulls: Good quality, heavy bulls brought up to $12.50 with the light came from three historical churches. It is our desire to reemphasize in the life of this community these great truths upon which the nation was built, and to challenge our community to rededication to these enduring foundations for a free government.

Calves: Bulls of the good calves brought from $20 to $22 with a few outstanding calves up to $23 and a few. Medium calves brought from $16 to $20 with rams from $12.50 to $16.

Hogs: Good choice top hogs brought $20.25 with lighter weight butchers from $18 to $20. Feeder pigs brought from $12 to $15 with a few above the latter price. Cured blooded woods hogs down to $8.

Doc says he can't recall having seen a new press in a weekly news-

"Conservatively speaking," Doc

FULLER-LARUE VOWS SINGLE-RING RITES FIRST METHODIST

Mrs. John Harris Larue was, before her marriage Sunday, Miss Jane Fuller, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fuller of Crockett; the groom is a son of Mrs. W. H. Larue of Lovelady.

The wedding vows were read by Rev. Leslie LeGrand before the altar of the First Methodist church in a single-ring ceremony. Miss Marjorie Bishop was maid of honor and Charles Fuller, brother of the bride, attended the groom as best man.

The bride was wearing a blue and gray sheer crepe with white accessories and carrying a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and tube roses. Mrs. Bishop chose a yellow taffeta of white with white accessories and a carriage of white roses.

Mrs. Larue is a 1949 graduate of Crockett High School. Mr. Larue was a student at Sam Houston State College following his graduation from Lovelady High School. After a honeymoon trip to Galveston the couple will be residing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Callaway.

Mrs. James S. Shivers has made a gift of a dozen fine books to the city library, announced Mrs. Mary Bruck. The books are 1948 and 1949 books among the gift.

Included in the list are the following titles: "Wine of Satan," by Lawrence Sanders; "Three Roads to Vengeance," by Catherine Pomeroy Stewart; "The Golden Fury," by Marion Coe; "Home Port," by Olive Higgins Prouty; "Queen of the Night," by Edgar Mason; "Young'un," by Herbert Best.

Also "Crazy Weather," "Bridges Over Blood," "The Murderer's Companion," "Angela's Business," "Inside the Lines" and "Dead Sea Breeze." The library is open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons at the city hall.

Walter Julian Dead.

Morgan Walter Julian, 64, died at his home in Crockett July 23, 1949. Services were held July 24 at 3 p. m. at the graveside with Rev. O. C. Davis, Methodist minister, officiating. Interment was in the English cemetery. Mr. Julian was a lifetime resident of Houston county and a member of the Center Hill Methodist church.

He is survived by: Wife, Mrs. Mary Julian; Crockett sons, Otis Julian of Crockett and Curtis Julian of Dallas; sisters, Mrs. Minnie Padgett, Crockett, and Mrs. Marvin Morgan, Kennard.

Arrangements were by Callaway Funeral Home.

Elliott Wynn.

W. J. Elliott, chief of the highway patrol, said his force has more than it can do to patrol 3,000 miles of principal highways and can not possibly patrol additional miles of farm roads. "We're praying that rural police won't start making racehorses out of plowhorses on these roads," Elliott said. "Our only hope is that the people will be their own safety patrol for the sake of self-preservation. Unless they do, enough blood will be spilled on these roads to paint a red stripe down the center of them from one end to the other."

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beard and daughter of Beaumont were here Tuesday passing through on a visit to their farm in the Trinity river valley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Farris report that their vacation into Old Mexico at Nueva Laredo was full of interest and value. They spent two days across the border and came back for a visit at Rockport.
