TIRED OF LIVING FROM
"PILLAR TO POST?"
HOMES.

This place, 1 1/2 mi. from Square, two years old and 4 1/2 acres is priced right and I can't understand why it hasn't sold. Three bedrooms and two concrete porches besides all other rooms. Beautiful condition and near intersection two H-ways. It's only $24,000. Will stand good loss.

A cute little 4-rm. house, 300 yds. square, completely furnished. Lot 70'x28'. Ideal for couple and easy terms can be arranged. $4,500.

702 N. 7th. Good five-rm. house, rented for $40, lovely, large lot. Nice screened porch and house in good condition except needs some papering. Nice and convenient neighborhood. Good buy at $4,500.

Large, roomy house, completely redecorated, even to new wiring and bathroom fixtures. Nice lot. Near Packer's on San Jacinto. $5,500.

Lots of ground and practically new six-rm. house. Fruit trees, shrubs, nice yard. Pay $2,750 and assume loan.

LOTS.

Semi-business, 70x70, opposite Packer's. Has a three-rm. house on it, now rented for storage. Only $750 for all.

Lovely terraced lot, 1 1/2, N. Square, splendid for small home or business. $10,000. (N. 6th, near Brookshire's).

Lovely graded lot, 75x175, 800 ft. Clark. Near schools and ready to build on. $10,000.

FARMS.

Three new listings. Too late for full particulars. One 5 1/2, one 7, one 8 miles southwest of Crockett, two with GOOD houses, one with only a barn (house burned).

77 1/2 Acres, with house, etc., $5,000. 160 acres, no house, $5,000. 185 acres, house, etc., $6,300. All have spring branches, year-round water. On R. E. A. School Bus and Rural Rt. Lights in both houses.

App. 100 acres, ALL MINERALS. 14 mi. S. W. Crockett, 6 mi. Lovelady. Splendid pasture, 2 spring-fed tanks, three others. 10 acres timber. All hog-proof fenced. Dallas and Bermejo grasses. $4 1/2 per acre.

110 acres, 9 mi. N. E. Crockett, 2 mi. Grapeland. Good land, part in cultivation, part pasture, some wooded. Good tank. Six-rm. house, all out-buildings. R. F. D. and school bus. Convenient to R. E. A. line. Only 1/4 minerals. Additional 50 acres available adjoining. $4,750.

I have buyers waiting for—150 acres, up, with plenty water and timber. Not a C. I., so can take less minerals, if necessary. Around 100 acres, prefers N. of Crockett, will take on C. I. plan or not.

Two clients for small, medium-priced houses. One wants nice old home with considerable acreage. Numerous other prospects, so PLEASE GIVE ME YOUR LISTINGS!

Drunk While Driving.
County officers and state highway officers report "drunk while driving" arrests over the week-end to number six. That many drunk while driving charges were filed in the county court for hearing on Monday morning.

Champion Short Shooter.
Mickey Michaels of Galveston was the guest last week of his cousin, Miss Kathryn Stokes. He was returning home from Dallas, where he had just won the title of National Champion 20-gauge Short Shooter.

Enroute New York.
Visiting Mrs. A. A. Aldrich, Miss Mary Aldrich and Mrs. B. F. Chamberlain this week-end will be Mrs. Armistead Aldrich of Edinburg and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Queens and two children of Austin. They will stop here on their way to New York.

Why Attend P-T. A.?
Parents should band themselves together to study ways of bettering conditions for their children just as business men join Lions Club, Rotary Club and the chamber of commerce to help make life pleasanter in their business associations. P-T. A. meets eight Thursdays a year. Will you be there each meeting?

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holland Arrington and children of Pasadena are visiting Miss Lee Arrington.

Mrs. Jimmie White was a Houston visitor this week.

Arriving Sunday.
Misses Betty Joyce and Alma Loyce Knox, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Knox, will arrive home Sunday from Boulder, Colo., where they have been attending summer school. In September they will reenroll at Sam Houston, Huntsville, as seniors majoring in home economics.

Divorces Granted.
Divorces were granted in Houston county district court, District Judge V. Melvin Johnston of Palestine presiding, Saturday in the following cases:

Billy Ray Yates vs. Mary Helen Yates.
Doris Hicks vs. Payne Hicks.

Returned from Trip.
Mrs. L. L. Murray and daughter, Miss Betty Jo Murray, have returned from several days' stay in New Orleans, where they saw the sights which included a trip by boat up the Mississippi. They were accompanied from here by Mrs. Brinson Landy.

Lovely Dinner Party.
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Milliken and Miss Callie Fay Milliken hosted Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stewart and about twenty guests with a dinner party Tuesday evening of last week.

Following the dinner, the guests were entertained with colored scenic pictures made by Miss Callie Fay while visiting in the Davis Mountains, also pictures of relatives and favorite pets, which were shown on a screen by a projection machine.

Luncheon in Dallas.
Saturday's compliment for Miss Kathryn Stokes was a luncheon at the Adolphus Hotel, given by Miss Beth Berry. The luncheon table was in pink with a bouquet of pink gladioli and white stock. There was a white corsage and a gift of silver for Miss Stokes. Guests were Mrs. Frank W. Campbell, Mrs. Lucille L. Berry, Mrs. Ken Womack, Miss Gail Grant, Miss Lucille Murray, Mrs. A. H. Proctor, Mrs. E. C. Lewis, Miss Juanita Ford and Mrs. Paul B. Stokes.

They plan to visit Washington, D. C., and Annapolis, Md., en route to New York City. Returning, they plan to see Philadelphia, Pa., Baltimore, Md., and Charleston, S. C. At Charleston they will visit Mr. Clements' brother, Ensign Neal W. Clements, and Mrs. Clements.

New Trial Granted.
Spencer Ellis, negro, was granted a new trial in county court of Houston county on a liquor law complaint Tuesday. Ellis had entered a plea of guilty and waived jury trial, being assessed a fine of $500 and a jail term of six months. Claiming he did not understand the proceedings, the defendant obtained the services of A. L.

torney Joe Bailey Humphreys and Dan Julian Jr., who entered the motion for a new trial. After hearing testimony and argument, County Judge Roy Selman granted the new trial as prayed for.

Bridge Dinner, Handkerchief Shower.
Hostesses at the home of Mrs. W. K. McLean were also Mrs. J. A. McLean and Miss Joyce Thomasson for a bridge dinner and handkerchief shower. Clever handmade place cards marked the places for sixteen guests. For the honoree a small white umbrella contained this verse:

"Don't throw this umbrella away. You may need it for another day. For at this very hour There are signs of a shower."

On the dining table a large umbrella held the shower gift.
