THOMPSON'S STORE
DOES REMODELING
IN READY-TO-WEAR

Crockett's business district has seen a great deal of remodeling during the past twelve months, and one store which has continued steadily with remodeling throughout this period is Thompson's.

Without interrupting business they began at the front. New awnings and then repainting of the outside front were done first. Coming on to the inside they installed air-conditioning. They next made a complete overhaul of the ready-to-wear department, and this job has just been completed. The store managers are hearing enthusiastic compliments on the attractiveness of the department, but what makes it such a pleasure to the customers is the convenient display of suits, dresses, blouses and accessories with lighting fixtures to show them off. An accessory bar is of pine and hardwood.

New dressingrooms and alterations rooms contain plenty of mirrors and lights. Dress cases are covered and from the inside the lights show up the merchandise. Floor coverings of shiny soft-patterned linoleum catch the light from the new overhead fluorescent fixtures.

This department is separated from the main floor of the store by a flight of stairs leading to a raised level, thus giving more privacy to the section. Floor space has been enlarged to make this department about one-third of the entire store space.

Beautification has been enhanced by two attractive museum pieces. Incorporated into one wall is a large mirror framed with quarter-sawn oak paneling, and directly opposite, in the other wall is an ornate background mirror with paneling. These pieces came from one of Crockett's better saloons in the far-distant historical past. Other mirrors are in each of the dressingroom doors, thus giving ample opportunity for the lady buyer to walk back and forth and view her dress or suit from all angles.

Owners of the store are partners, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gilson, all of whom are almost constantly at hand in the store. Employees, who seem also like members of the family because they have been here so long, are Mrs. Tensie Linder, Miss Mary Young, Miss Rhoda Nell Adair, Mrs. Mary Temple and Miss Nanette Cowley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Woodson Jr. and sons, J. D. III and John Wallace, of Houston were here for the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Dudley Woodson.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Shapira and two children of Houston were guests of Dr. Shapira's mother, Mrs. Meyer L. Shapira, in Crockett for the week end and holiday.

The action of the organic supplied by legumes when plowed under provides more water for following crops by increasing the water-holding capacity of the soil.

Mrs. L. L. Stoker, Mrs. Raymond Cornelius and Mrs. C. C. Ellison, the latter of Tyler, were among those attending the Stokes-Dawson wedding in Houston Friday morning.

E. R. (EDD) JONES
DIES IN OREGON

E. R. (Edd) Jones passed away in Tillamook, Ore., August 31. At the time of his death Mr. Jones was making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Karlene McWilliam.

Mr. Jones was born in Sumpter County, Georgia, February 8, 1875. After coming to Texas at an early age with his parents, he made his home in Houston county until the past three years, during which time he lived with his daughter in Tillamook. Mr. Jones will be remembered as an honest, upright citizen and good, Christian man, having united with the church in early manhood.

He was married to Miss Maggie Sims of Houston county in 1905. To this union were born six children: three sons and three daughters. Mr. Jones' wife and three of his children, Mrs. Beatie Dayland, Mrs. Wilma Dayland and Earl Jones, preceded him in death several years ago.

His survivors are: two sons, Milburn and Jesse of Crockett; Mrs. Karlene McWilliam of Tillamook, Ore.; a twin brother, C. W. Jones of Crockett; a sister, Mrs. J. W. Hooks of Houston; several grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews.

Mr. Jones was loved and respected by all who knew him, and his many friends and loved ones regret to hear of his death.
