BATTLE TO KEEP POUND DEVALUED.

[Devraluing] [uncertain] the pound was accomplished by government ukase [only]] [uncertain] after a strenuous political battle The more [acriuous] [uncertain] political and economic battle to keep it devalued in terms of its purchasing capacity now [bea] [uncertain]
Of course the pound wan devalued because of the pressure of supply a and demand. It is now about where it would have been if there had been a free market
it would stay there

[7] [uncertain] if there were a free market. That is, it would stay there so long as British production of goods is about where It ls today. It would rise or fall according to the rise or fall of [Britains] [uncertain] Industria) production. But Britain has a controlled" economy. A [controlled™] [uncertain] economy is one that ie run by [politica—ehaped] [uncertain] to [mect] [uncertain] the political ends of the crowd that is running the government. Such is [controlled™] [uncertain] economy in fact,

LOVELADY GOES 70 NEWTON ON FRIDAY

The Lovelady High [Lions.] [uncertain] who had an open date last week, open their [Jistriet] [uncertain] 29-B schedule Friday. On that date the Lions travel to Newton to engage that high school, which is a new member of the district. Newton has been playing teams from district 26-A and has been taking numerous bumps this season, but is expected to be a worthy competitor in class B circles, The [fong] [uncertain] trip will probably take some of the edge off the Lions.

Lovelady's next home game will be Saturday night, October 15, with Diboll furnishing the opposition in another district tilt. It will also be a night for Lovelady High [res.] [uncertain]
