[2 2] [uncertain] Bo, today, we have a
see) strike,

a coal [qtrike,] [uncertain] others in the [offing,] [uncertain] and what happens in stop will be a pattern for what is to come.
Much lesa than two decades ago, [ATS] [uncertain] industrial management had the reins) [2] [uncertain] te in [tts] [uncertain] hands. It could, and unquestionably sometimes did, underpay its a hard-eweating workers. But if the workers struck, there was always more labor available. You could strike and starve and many cases, with the strike broken, you could not always get your job back. That was wrong, of course, brutally wrong. [D] [uncertain] That wag not management but mismanagement There was too much of it.

Today, the industrially organized worker has the whip hand, not only jn [stec] [uncertain] and coal [bot] [uncertain] in every other industry where industrial unionization has taken hold. He can and does paralyze an industry, He can force it to operate uneconomically. He can put it out of business. If he strikes, he can and does prevent other workers from taking his job, assum-

[See] [uncertain] ing that there are enough of them to take it anyway. That is wrong, brutally wrong. [It] [uncertain] is no more ip the d workers" interest than in that of [mapagement] [uncertain] or public. [2"] [uncertain] What happened to shift from one bad situation to [anctber?] [uncertain] The [interxg vention] [uncertain] of federal laws under the Wagmer act. Grant that its intentions were good, Yet the fact remains that It produced as bad a situation in finality as the one with which it at sought to deal Its solution was to terminate too much power in the hands of management by putting too Bt much power in the hands of labor Bt Of [Representative] [uncertain] Robert L. [Coffey,] [uncertain] Democrat, defeated a veteran [Repud-] bot! lican congressman, [uncertain] Harve Tibbot, by fun a 12,000-vote majority. Last week,) Sta Mr. Coffeys mother, running for his and unexpired term, was defeated by/ war John P. Saylor, Republican, by a [ma-] [uncertain] ear! [jority] [uncertain] of 9,000. The significance [of] [uncertain] T the result ia not that it indicates [a] [uncertain] wit! Republican trend so much as that [it] [uncertain] Oct was a definite and decisive rejection) ma of the whole [CIO-Truman] [uncertain] program. [Co}] [uncertain]

A clear-cut issue was made of the by whole CIO-Truman program. [Mrt/ 1k3] [uncertain] Coffey advocated repeal of the [Taft) der Hartley] [uncertain] law and enactment of [the]] [uncertain] Go) full Truman domestic program, [and]] [uncertain] ou she had the active [aupport] [uncertain] of the few [CIO,] [uncertain] the AFL, and the so-called! A decisive result was adown, in [the]—] [uncertain] returns. More than 60 per cent of the votes of the district is in [Cambria Jeounty,] [uncertain] including the industrial city [jof Johnstown,] [uncertain] but the labor candidate carried it by only 1,500 votes [(32,509] [uncertain] to [8).292.]) [uncertain] The Republican candidate [lewept] [uncertain] the rest of the district by
