BIG DIFFERENCE

Erie [Johnston] [uncertain] says that what i holding Western Europe back In its [leffort] [uncertain] to recover is the obsession of [teverybody] [uncertain] for individual security:

When the average European guys looking for job [todsy,] [uncertain] he generally asks these questions in the order [(named: What) [uncertain] pension do I get? Do I leet Saturdays off? How many days vacation do I get a year? What does the job pay?"

You see, the big difference between Western Europe job-huntera and i [American] [uncertain] job-honters ia that the j American aka: What penman do T get? Do I get [Setardays] [uncertain] off? How many days vacation do I get year? What [doce] [uncertain] the Job pay? [Thats] [uncertain] the big [difference—that] [uncertain] and the fact the Europeana have been socialistically planned down to equal- [ity] [uncertain] of want, whereas we have been socialistically planned down merely to wanting [equality—thst] [uncertain] and the fact that the European pays 40 per cent of everything for graft and taxes, whereas we pay only little more than 20 per cent of everything for graft and taxes over here.

We are [backward] [uncertain] that way. But give ua [time—Dallas] [uncertain] News,
