order to provide for their families.

The moat recent Instance is that of Clark [NM.] [uncertain] Clifford, but there have been many others [previously.]

[uncertain] Mr.

Clifford had just been placed in a bracket [cailing] [uncertain] for an [annua] [uncertain] salary of $20,000. One need only [conault] [uncertain] the [officia] [uncertain] figures of the Bureau of Internal Revenue to discover that only a fraction of one per cent of all the 42,000,000 income taxpayers in the United States are as fortunate as Mr. Clifford.

Literally millions of Americans are maintaining their [familics] [uncertain] on a [frac-] [uncertain] ton of what this public official gets from the government. There are quite a few low income categories which include [eyeral millien] [uncertain] personal [cach.] [uncertain] The r of persons who have [Inco 20,900'] [uncertain] or over is less than 300,000. Most of these breast beaters among officials never have made as much previously as if the government jobs from which they resign. As [a@] [uncertain] rule/ they have accepted government service because it paid them as much if not more than they were [earning] [uncertain] at the time of their transfer to the public [lic] [uncertain] payroll, and because they anti- [pated] [uncertain] a chance to capitalize upon the connections they could make.

[It] [uncertain] is stated without confirmation, that Mr. Clifford made from 20,000 to $30,000 as a private lawyer. That declaration is made not by Mr. [Clif-] [uncertain] but by his friends who champion [hia] [uncertain] departure. He is getting $20,000 on which, he [aays,] [uncertain] he can't live now; but there [arent] [uncertain] many Americans who would not take the same compensation - [tlen] [uncertain] and live well on it.

NO SCHOOL AID NEEDED BY

WEALTHIER STATES,

Harold E. Stassen is right in insisting that, if we have federal aid schools, the help be [Limited] [uncertain] to [posrer] [uncertain] states. Another educator, Dwight [Eisenhower,] [uncertain] has said the same thing. The states that would receive [auch] [uncertain] aid all happen to be in the South. Thus neither Stassen nor [Eleenhower] [uncertain] can be accused of selfishly [faroring] [uncertain] his own state or section. If there is any excuse for federal aid, it is only to have the wealthier states help those which are [loast] [uncertain] wealthy.

In any country the public [schools] [uncertain] always have been under [joca] [uncertain] and state control. They should [remalg] [uncertain] so. Any kind of federal grant 3/4 bound to be followed by [federa] [uncertain] control. That would mean regimented schools and goose-stepping pupils. That is a development that Americans have [awsys] [uncertain] tried to avoid. Federal school grants would also bring new or increased federal taxes with any diminution of local or state taxes. Not all of the tax increase would reach the schools. Much of it would go into the salaries and x-: [peneca] [uncertain] of a horde of new federal [achoo] [uncertain] commissary.

The only argument for [federa] [uncertain] aid that has any [abred] [uncertain] of logic is the one that a few southern states have a hard time maintaining schools [up] [uncertain] to the national average. If congress passed bill for federal school aid, only these few states would be the; beneficiaries. To pour federal [taz] [uncertain] money into the schools of wealthy states like New York and [Peansyl-] [uncertain] would be [(be) [uncertain] most [obvious hind]] [uncertain] of vote buying. Even Texas needs no such help. We must keep our [echocks] [uncertain] and our health [acrvice] [uncertain] safe from the [gramp] [uncertain] of nationalized Pendergast machine.

Incidentally, aid in control of [edu-] [uncertain] cation is not power delegated to the congress by the constitution Dallas News.
