Annual Christmas Party.

The annual Christmas party of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary will be a covered dish supper. Every one is to bring a covered dish of their choice. The party will be held at the Memorial Gymnasium, Fair Park, Tuesday night, December 15, at 8 p. m. All Legionnaires and their wives are invited.

Card of Thanks.

To say many friends, for their loving deeds, and many sets of kind words during the illness and death of our loved one, we shall ever be grateful. The floral offering was so profuse and beautiful.

May God bless each of you, with such loyal friends is our prayer. The Family of Earl M. Smith.

Crockett Day Announced.

February 7 will be Crockett day at the 1950 Houston Fair Stock Show and Livestock Exposition during its twelve day run, beginning February 1. Stock show officials, as always, are more than happy to welcome visitors from cities outside of Houston, who have helped in making the Houston show one of the largest of its kind in the nation, President W. A. Lee said.

Jacksonville Funeral.

R. Perry Driskill of Jacksonville, a son of the late D. A. and Bettie (Shivers) Driskill, died in a Jacksonville hospital Sunday at 3:30 p. m. Funeral service was in Graggard, Springdale and Broadway, funeral chapel at 3:30 p. m. Monday. Attending from Crockett were a sister, Mrs. John W. Baker; a brother, Arthur M. Driskill; a nephew, H. I. Driskill; a niece, Mrs. V. B. Beard. Friends attending were Mrs. E. C. Arledge, Mrs. C. P. Ows and Mrs. O. W. Hanson.

Junior Football Canceled.

The projected North-South football game between members of the Crockett junior (elementary school) squad has been canceled. While the players and their student coaches were enthusiastic, it was deemed advisable to discontinue training. Both Coach D. D. Stinson and Robert Summers have their time taken up with basketball coaching and were unable to supervise the training of the youngsters.

Exhibition Cows.

H. L. Batterwhite is exhibiting three cows of corn that look like they were grown for exhibition purposes. The grains have all the colors of the rainbow with, seemingly, a few more colors added. They are beautiful people, back of which no washing is needed. Then won't say whose field he got this corn out of or what purpose he proposes to put it to—maybe a home, when cold-weather spare ribs get a little more plentiful.

SESTIC STUDENTS VISIT SCHOOLS.

Prof. Tom Murray's class of 10 from the department of education at Texas Southern State college visited schools in the county Tuesday. They gathered at 9:30 a. m. at the county court room to hear a welcome address by County Supt. Marcus Mason. Harry M. Bradley, supervisor, spoke on the supervision plan he is using and Mrs. Katherine P. Mason described the types of service materials available to teachers here. They spent the rest of the day observing classroom procedures in the various schools.

ELKS LAUNCH THEIR PROGRAM TO BUILD YOUTH LEADERSHIP

A program to strengthen democracy by developing leadership among America's youth has been launched by the Elks and Protective Order of Elks, B. F. Youngblood, exalted ruler of Crockett Lodge of Elks, declared.

Youngblood said that, as the first step in the program, the Grand Lodge Activities committee this year will award $300 college scholarships to boys and girls with the most distinguished records for leadership. One award will be made in each of eleven districts which was established by the Grand Lodge committee for the purpose. The awards will be made to high school seniors who are qualified for college entrance and must be used to finance the first year's college expenses.

"While a boy or girl is eligible for a scholarship, the emphasis in this program is on the quality of leadership displayed by the applicant rather than on scholastic attainments," Youngblood pointed out, "which sets this program apart from the usual type of scholarship. Our purpose is to lead scholarship to those youth who have shown that they have a capacity for making great contributions to the betterment of our democratic society, and who deserve financial assistance that will enable them to develop that capacity further."

The scholarships will be financed by a grant from the Elks National Foundation, the Order's charitable trust, to the Youth Activities Committee which was established by the Grand Lodge convention at Cleveland last July and given the job of developing a broadened youth program designed to meet today's needs.

Youngblood added that these leadership awards are entirely apart from the Elks National Foundation's Most Valuable Student Scholarships granted to financially deserving students with highest scholastic attainments. Under this program, now in its 15th year, the Foundation in July will grant 30 scholarships totaling $12,000 and ranging in value from $400 to $300.

Judge John F. Skelton of New York, chairman of the Youth Activities Committee, informed Youngblood that additional information relative to matters of making application for the scholarships is being supplied to the Youth Committee to aid the community in this field with the view of broadening the youth program to include youth activities which include aid to crippled children, summer camps for underprivileged children, competitive sports, support of orphanages and youth centers, sponsorship of Boy Scout troops and many others.

County Judge Roy Selman, who returned last week from a conference on rural roads in Chicago, which he attended as representative of the Texas County Judges' and Commissioners' Association, advised the Courier that he believes that constructive efforts were made toward an improved national system of rural, or farm-to-market, roads. The committee of representatives of the national association of county officials, from the various state associations, approved the Kerr bill, sponsored by Senator Kerr of Oklahoma, which calls for a national appropriation of $100,000,000 a year. Judge Selman served as a spokesman of the Youth Activities Committee to the bill, which was acceptable to Senator Kerr, defining the farm-to-market road. This was intended to prevent state agencies from using the funds intended for this purpose on other types of roads, which the state agencies might define as farm-to-market.

On motion of Judge Selman, a proposal to set up regional organizations within the national association was adopted. Three states vigorously opposed the motion, but all others supported it. This setup will enable regions to thrust out their own needs and problems without conflicting with the other areas.

Night Ask Too Much.

Mr. Geo. W. Crook gave the Courier editor last week a bag of fine pecans. When we asked him, after thanking him for the pecans, why he didn't crack 'em, he said he was afraid we would then ask him to pick 'em out for us.

Some northern tavern keepers are said to have quit serving musicians—they just invite in a few singers, they say, and have all the music needed.
