LE BONS WARNING. Dy [George] [uncertain] Peek.

I have just finished reading a book published toward the end of the 10th century, written by Gustave Le Bon, the eminent French psychologist. In this [bouk] [uncertain] Le Bon was writing of [conditiona] [uncertain] then existing in France and he predicted dire things for [hia] [uncertain] native land. There le a deadly [parallel]] [uncertain] between what transpired in France

[GO] [uncertain] years ago and what it taking place [jin] [uncertain] America today, and vo 1 quote excerpts taken from different parts of the book:

Nothing is more fatal to a people than the mania for great reforms, [howrrer] [uncertain] excellent these reforms may appear theoretically. They would only be [uacful] [uncertain] were t possible to change [inatantancoualy] [uncertain] the genius of nations.

Today the claims of the masses are becoming more and more sharply defined, and amount to nothing Ices than a determination to utterly de- troy society as it now exists, with s View to making it hark back to the primitive [communiam] [uncertain] which [waa] [uncertain] the normal condition of all human [gruups] [uncertain] before the dawn of civilization. Lim- [itationa] [uncertain] of the hours of labor, the na- [tionalization] [uncertain] of mines, railways, fac- tories and the [soll,] [uncertain] the [equa]] [uncertain] distribu- [tion] [uncertain] of all products, the elimination of all the upper classes for the ben- [efit] [uncertain] of the popular [classce, etc.] [uncertain] such are these claim,

The passing of these innumerable cries of legislative measures, all of them n a general [wey] [uncertain] of o restrictive order, conduces necessarily to sug- [ment] [uncertain] the number, the power and the influence of the functionaries charged with [thelr] [uncertain] application. These fun

SOMETHING ON HIS MIND.

Friend Milldew, here Saturday, stopped by lang enough to get something off of his mind. What [bo-]: thered] [uncertain] him ia that so many people are afraid to stand vp and take aj" [fearicas] [uncertain] stand for right any [more.] [uncertain] But he says It looks like, Ilving in the age they do, they are partly [ex-'] [uncertain] usable, It is an age where all, from) the highest to the [lowlleat atand] [uncertain] for only those tings which they think) will help [themsclvea.] [uncertain] Me couldn't say that they worshipped the golden calf. The administration called in all the gold and burlud It near Fort Knox, Kentucky, and gave the people s cheap paper money aa their [idol—a] [uncertain] cheap paper money that bus about a third of what the gold dollar bought. But, getting much of this cheap paper money, all thought they were rich and resorted to many extravagances. Their cheap money [al}] [uncertain] spent, there are too many who will do most anything to get some more of it. But they will do no worse than some [pollticlans,] [uncertain] from the highest down, will do to get voles. They will garner in more voles by [folilqging] [uncertain] the popular
