LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Schools in Vacation.
Houston county schools for the most part closed Wednesday afternoon for the Christmas holidays, announced County Superintendent Marcus Mason. Lovelady and Glover schools taught longer, while Grapeland dismissed Tuesday afternoon. Presence of some cases of chicken pox in the Grapeland district hastened the closing.

The tide of good will again is full across the earth. Our wish is that it flood your heart with happiness and make this year Merriest Christmas.

CARBON MONOXIDE DANGEROUS THING

Austin, December 17.—By this time you're aware that heater was, there has definitely hit Texas. State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox, commenting on the above-mentioned fact said Thursday there is no doubt that carbon monoxide—associated with gas heaters—is one of the most lethal and least publicized of all the poisonous gases. Carbon monoxide, the doctor explained, is formed when there is not enough oxygen mixed with burning gas, or when the design or operation of gas burning equipment is faulty.

WHISPERING PINES SIGHING WINDS CHARM EDITOR

The Courier editor rode again Sunday afternoon. He drove from Crockett to Corrigan and back via Pennington, Groveson and Woodlake. The most scenic and entrancing part of his drive was between Pennington and Groveson. There seemed to be a mutual admiration between the towering pines in their greenness and this editor. The pines seemed to be perfectly satisfied in their standing. They bowed graciously to this editor and he was satisfied. All was harmonious between us, and only the winds sighed. The pines whispered.

JANUARY CONCERT BY PIANO ARTIST

January 16 is the date set for the next concert attraction, announced Bill Perdue, president of the Crockett Concert association. Miss Ruth Robinson, gifted young piano virtuoso, is the artist. The program will be in the Memorial building at 8 o'clock. Miss Robinson, it will be remembered from last season by the Crockett audience, has the gift not only of technique accompanied by deep emotional interpretative ability, but also as having that indispensable quality known as "Audience Touch." Her program is designed to please a range of musical tastes. No tickets will be sold for this concert. Admission is limited to those who present membership cards.

For Sale—The Faling & Faling Store. Store located at Commerce and Bell. Brick building, good fixtures, clean fresh stock and parking space on four sides. This business has been profitable under the present management for sixteen years. There is the opportunity to expand in several lines and ample room in the building for such expansion. The only reason for offering this good business for sale is Dr. Faling's illness, which now confines him to the bed continuously. Please contact Dr. Faling at the store.

JUST A WORD WITH OUR SUBSCRIBERS

For the third week the Courier's list of renewals and subscriptions has reached the pleasing number of sixteen, which might indicate, as previously said, that the Courier is no better and for the same reason, no worse. Other subscription lists may come and go, but the Courier, like the everlasting spring stream, goes on just the same. We hope it is as refreshing and, at least, as soothing. A good friend tells us that, after reading the Courier in the early night, he can lie down and go to sleep immediately with absolutely nothing on his mind.

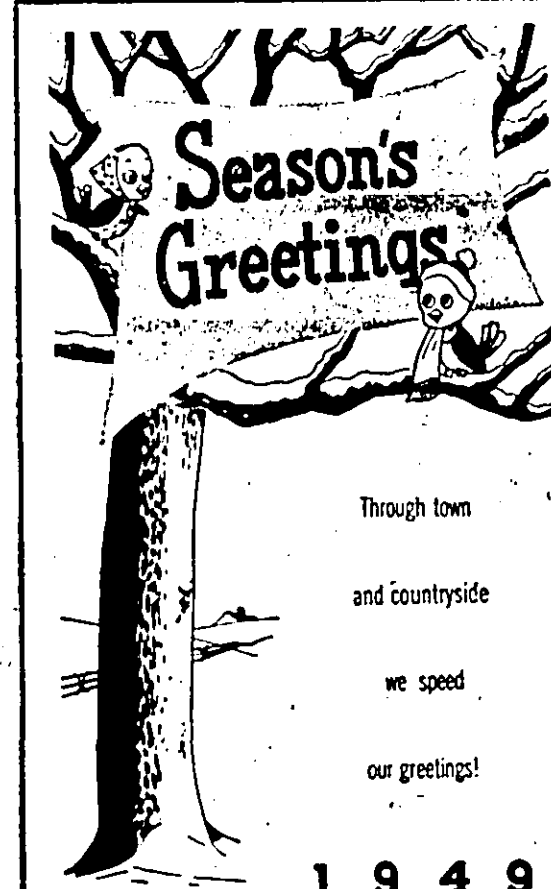

We again appreciate the fine lists of this and other weeks. Following are the names of those making up the week's fine list: Reed Buckton, Crockett Rt. 1; Call Richards, Crockett Rt. 2; Mrs. J. G. Miller, Pecos, Tex.; G. C. Russell, Crockett Rt. 1; T. T. Jones, Kennard Rt. 2; J. G. Ellis, Crockett; H. A. Phillips, Beld; Mrs. Rosa Heaton, Crockett; Bob Wray Black, Crockett; H. A. Briner, Lovelady Rt. 2; W. G. Murray, Houston; Lang Smith, Houston; Napoleon Vanner, Lovelady Star Rt. 2; Shadon Donner, Lovelady Star Rt. 2; Miss Emma Triney, Crockett; Mrs. J. T. Clark, Austin.

COMMUNITY NEWS AROUND RATCLIFF

The community got a surprise Saturday when Tom Henry Payne and Mrs. Ruby Davis were married.

We had a nice Christmas tree at the church on the night of the 18th. Mrs. Harvey Anderson's sister, Houston, is spending a few days with her. She is 82, stayed in the hospital at Houston five weeks, but is doing nicely since she has been out here.

Del Anderson, teaching at Pasadena, is home for the Christmas holidays. Miss Bride Lee Payne is in Groveson, where she has been teaching.

Mrs. Lucille Moore and son of Houston have been visiting parents. Buford and Mable Anderson, Mrs. Mable Anderson is planning on spending Christmas in Orange and Port Arthur with her children.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henry Payne returned to Groveson Sunday to see Mrs. Payne's daughter, Marie Lee Bost, and to see his sister, Mrs. Bell Taylor and Miss Bride Lee Payne.

Mrs. Mollie Anderson spent Christmas eve with Mrs. Porter Payne. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams and son, James, motored to Alto to see Mr. Williams' mother, Mrs. J. W. Williams, Sunday.

We are suffering a terrible shortage about the mad for in this community. Several dogs have been bitten and some of them killed.

The Courier has heard of a hunter who got his deer without firing a shot. The buck was seen as it attempted to jump a fence, having first seen the hunter. One of the deer's front legs went under the top wire instead of over it, throwing the deer with sufficient force to break one of its hips. When the hunter arrived, the buck was helpless, being caught in the wire fence and having one of its hips broken. The hunter to get the deer out of its misery, cut its throat. The incident happened in southwest Texas.
