CHRISTMAS MUSIC "TEAMWORK" TALKS ON PTA PROGRAM

Houstoners for the social hour which followed the Christmas program of the Parent-Teacher association meeting last Thursday were Mrs. A. Frank Smith Jr. and Mrs. Sam Arledge. They served Christmas candies.

Mrs. Raymond Cornish, president, brought the meeting to order and introduced Mrs. Buck Sullivan as program leader for the day. Mrs. Sullivan's program consisted of readings about the holiday season by several of the small boys and girls, among them Jesse Johnson, Maurice Welch and Susie Moore.

The Christmas Star was performed by Miss Katy King's pupils. Martha Spidle played for singing of some carols.

Speeches were on the theme of "Teamwork." Rev. Leslie LeGrand's subject was the Home and the Church; Mrs. W. D. Julian Jr. spoke on the Home and the School. They each stressed the duties and privileges of the home in relation to church and school.

George Reed presented his Girl Club in some Christmas numbers. The

FRIENDS ALARMED ABOUT HIS PAPER

Houston, Texas, December 15, 1949.
Hon. W. W. Aycock,
Editor, Crockett Courier,
Crockett, Texas.
Dear Billy:

On October 3, 1949, I mailed you my check for $10.00, knowing my subscription to your valuable paper, but I notice you have not changed the expiration date as shown by clipping herewith.

Billy, I am not worried about this at all, but my neighbors and friends who borrow my paper are somewhat worried for fear that I have not paid up my subscription to the paper and that it is possible that you will discontinue it.

I wish you would make the change at your earliest convenience. With very best wishes and kindest personal regards, I am,

Always your friend,
Lang Smith.

Dear Lang:

Please accept our apologies for the oversight. Your remittance was properly credited on the subscription book. The oversight was in not marking up the expiration date in the mailing gallery. You can blame your friends for their anxiety in your getting your Courier every week. We regret with to imply that this is the competition at the final performance only reason they want your office. It is their interest in seeing that you are properly informed each week. It is the interest of friends in your own information. However, we appreciate your supplying them through the Courier, the latest information from the old home county. Thanking you for your continued friendship and patronage, we beg to remain,

Sincerely your friend,
The Courier Editor.
