CCORDING to the familiar old enrol, St. Joseph was an [old}]! [uncertain] man, Tle probably wan consider ably older than Mary, but [peaple] [uncertain] may have thought of [bhi] [uncertain] as going older than he actually wa because he enjoyed earnest conversation and the [cotnpantanship] [uncertain] of selected [frlendy] [uncertain] rather than [bolsterous] [uncertain] pleasures,

When Joseph thought of [Wty,] [uncertain] he forgot the difference in" [thehr] [uncertain] ages: [phe] [uncertain] wan the girl he had waited for, his beloved, They were espoused or, as we would say, engaged which wan almost [nas] [uncertain] of [(ictal] [uncertain] as being married. Hla heart soared on [whi] [uncertain] of the approach ing wedding, day, and then.

What Mary insisted had come to pass, amply could not bet Joseph wanted desperately to believe [Mary,] [uncertain] but such things just didn't ef happen, and ff they dit, they happened to somebody else,

Much as he loved Mary, Joseph was a [oripghteous] [uncertain] and) [God-fearing] [uncertain] man and while he couldn't even think of making her a public [exqnples] [uncertain] he had just about made up his mind to put her away [7] [uncertain] privily. That is, he thought he had made up his mind, In his heart, he knew he [couldnt,] [uncertain] what would become of her of her child. [2.] [uncertain]

Then one night, after he had exhausted himself with tortured thinking, he fell asleep and the angel of the Lord e-peared to him in a dream saying, [Joseph,] [uncertain] thou son of David, fear not.

And when Joseph awoke, he did as [tne] [uncertain] angel had bidden him, ands,tgok Mary as his lawful and [cnerished] [uncertain] wife.

Fear not," the angel spoke unto Joseph,

Fear not," the angel had de-clared unto Mary.

Fear not," the angel said unto the shepherds of Bethlehem.
