LEGION CONTRACTS FOR CONSTRUCTION NEW POST HOME

The building committee of [Thomas,] [uncertain] R. [Brailsford] [uncertain]
 Post No, 134, American Legion, has contracted with [R..] [uncertain] W. Webb for construction of the new post home, which is to be erected on [the:]
 [uncertain] five-acre tract [purehased] [uncertain] several years ago and which is situated just south of Davy Crockett Memorial park.

Under the terms of the agreement, construction began this week. The contractor has 50 working days for completion. The building is due [tol"] [uncertain] be finished early in 1951.

Crockett Courier — December 14, 1950

Much of the framework of the structure is to be made up of [materials], [uncertain] from the building formerly located at the [citys] [uncertain] airport property on highway 21, southwest of Crockett. This building was purchased by the Legion and torn down. The materials were moved to the building site adjacent to the city park.

Ceramic Class.

Mrs. Mary V. McGibany's class in ceramic work is very industrious in making lovely trays, bowls, vases and figurines for Christmas gifts. The leaf tray, many students in the class are making, is especially attractive when fired and glazed. Mrs. McGibany was most enthusiastic about her group of students which met in the Home Economics class in Austonio. A group of girls and boys formed a special class to learn this art of making pottery, and the ladies met in the afternoon for a class instruction. New members are [Mrs.] [uncertain] J. E. Morgan, Mrs. Gladys Maples, Mrs. C. Staley of Lufkin, Mrs. Rucker of [Austonio.] [uncertain] and Miss Helen Mutray.

The [FP. A,] [uncertain] Club boys have reached the halfway mark [intheir] [uncertain] broiler project. Broilers are four weeks old and they have eaten seven sacks of feed. The boys have already begun putting Jocks on the doors because the broilers would certainly be a temptation to some passer-by,

It was noted by all the entire high school that something new has been added, A new library, complete with new books, new shelves, venetian [blitids,] [uncertain] new black boards, and decorated throughout in beautiful colors, has just been completed. The library is not only beautiful to behold, but as one student said, It is large enough to make a hundred yard dash around inside it and [névér] [uncertain] touch a thing." Sincerely, it is large enough to accommodate the largest class in high school. Adjoining the library, which is on the south side of the gymnasium, is a complete new office, equipped throughout with venetian blinds and new furniture. At the present time Mr. Bitner is enjoying privacy, but teachers and students have already found that it is a nice place to gather for a good session." The cool, clear weather has not only helped [everyones] [uncertain] feelings, but seems to have improved the [attendanco] [uncertain] in the Kennard school. It is hoped by all that the students continue coming regularly because as noted by one leading educator, a regular student is a happy student.

The Mothers" and Dads" Club surely came through with a bang" this week, Tuesday night at [7:30 oclock] [uncertain] they went on stage with their first Negro minstrel. The cast consisted of: added, especially the sermon rendered by Reverend Woodall represented by Ward Collins. The show was played before one of the largest audiences ever attending the Kennard gym. It was noted that there was an almost complete turnout of parents in the Kennard School District.

The High School chorus, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Skipper, sang between acts. A group of high school girls gave a very nice rendition of an old time square dance. One of the high school students, Raymond Tanner, showed considerable improvement in singing Old Man River."

The Mothers" and Dads Club officers were gratified to note that the Negro minstrel was well received by all in attendance and felt that the work put forth by the club members was well worth the gracious compliments given by a satisfied audience. [Ee uageeeee] [uncertain] Engineer Major.

Ta general," [aayw Mr. Willan O,] [uncertain] Platt, county PMA committee [ehalrnian,] [uncertain] the 1961 [allotivent] [uncertain] will be based on the 1960 allotment [entablued] [uncertain] for the farm. The [(060] [uncertain] allotment reflects the pant [nerenge] [uncertain] of peanut on the farm and the tillable acreage available for the production of peanut. [Thesxo] [uncertain] are the factors required by law to he taken into consideration in getting allotments."

Mr. Piatt points out that the Texas ante allotment" far [JO61] [uncertain] in 376,782 acres as compared with a L960 [ntate] [uncertain] allotment of 400,873 acres, Thin decrease in the state allotment, ho explains, reflects the downward trend in [ovarall] [uncertain] requirements for [pennuta,] [uncertain] and [wil] [uncertain] necessitate..a downward adjustment in most farm allotments from the 19560 level,

The chairman reminds growers, however, that if quotas are approved in the coming referendum, a producer on whose farm the acreage picked or threshed in 1961 does not exceed the [nerenge] [uncertain] picked or threshed in 1047, may avoid the marketing penalty and will still be eligible for price support on his quota" peanuts if he delivers his excess"" [pennuts] [uncertain] to an agency designated by the [Secretary] [uncertain] of Agriculture.

Under these circumstances," says Mr. Platt, the producer will be paid for the portion of the lot constituting excess peanuts, the prevailing market value for oil [peanutsa—but] [uncertain] not more than the price received by such agency from the sale of [peanuts—less] [uncertain] the estimated cost of storing, handling and selling. He will receive the support price for the portion of the lot representing quota peanuts. This same provision applies to the 1950 crop."

In connection with the referendum, Mr. Platt points out that quotas will continue in effect for the next three years if approved by two-thirds or more of the [cligible] [uncertain] voters who cast ballots. An eligible voter, he explains, is any person [who—ns] [uncertain] owner, operator, tenant or share [cropper—] [uncertain] had an interest in the peanuts produced on a farm in 1950 on which more than one acre was harvested for nuts.

Polling places will be set up in our large peanut growing communities and the PMA office in Houston county. The voting will be conducted by referendum committees of peanut producers under the general supervision of the county PMA committee. J. Lynn Mauk, Administrative. Officer Houston County PMA.
