PYRRHIC VICTORY."

For originality in interpretation of election results, Sam Rayburn, the Texan who is speaker of the house, wins the prize, Mr. Rayburn had watched the Dem: [ocratic] [uncertain] majority in the senate virtually evaporate, the new line-up being 49 to 47 seats as compared with the present congress" 564 Democratic senators to 42 Republicans.

He had seen the voters cut down the majority he had enjoyed, as Democratic leader in the house, almost by half, In view of the fact that Mr. Rayburn has had perhaps the least success in controlling his own bloc [in] [uncertain] congress of any [mented] [uncertain] Wednesday that the [election:] [uncertain] as a whole was quite a victory for the Democrats." It would be hard to find a postelection statement [that:] [uncertain] will match that one. Mr. Rayburn reminds one of Pyrrhus, the king of Epirus who beat the Romans in battle, but in such cost to his own forces that he had to admit that one more victory like that and he would lose the war. The difference is that the Honorable Sam wont admit that the Democrats" victory" Tuesday was a Pyrrhic one. He prefers to view the political scene through rase-colored glasses [Houston] [uncertain] Chronicle.

NEIGHBORLY CITIES,

1 Forneys 1,500 inhabitants, facing a water shortage as the result of a cave-in in their one deep well, have learned that they have good neigh- bors. Water has been brought in by truck from Mesquite and by train from Fort Worth and Terrell. The Texas Pacific Railroad has been operating an emergency water train from Terrell. Always, it seems, there are people ready to go out of their way and work extra hours to avert human suffering.

Perhaps Forney people have learn- ed, too, not to depend on a single well for their water, If their Thurs- day night fire had spread, the hauled- in water might not have been enough to put it out. A reserve water sitp- ply is essential for the safety of community, large or small. [Other] [uncertain]

Texas cities can profit by taking sure that they do not get into a dan- serous situation like that at Forney.
