SOME EARLY HISTORY OF CROCKETT

[illegible or non-text passage omitted — see scan]

Editor Courier,

Crockett, [Texas.—] [uncertain]

Dear Sir:

In a letter from Mrs. Josje Gossett

Newton, she gives me the earliest history of the first two settlers in Crockett, [ett,] [uncertain] Texas. She is now, or will be, 88 years old on December 22, and is very feeble, but in a weeks time, propped up in bed, she managed to type a two- page letter partly as follows:

Her father donated the present site for a church, as well as the [townsite,] [uncertain] and additions for court house and square and three other churches, two schools and a cemetery, and was found- er of Crockett immediately after Tex- as independence. Houston county or- [ganized] [uncertain] on June 8, 1887, and Crockett incorporated December 27 same year.

Her father and his fathers entire family moved to Texas from Tennes- see and built their first log cabin without nails on top of the hill where

Mary Allen college now stands, Her fathers father, Elija Gossett, located and built his home five miles from where it now is. This is only a part, but she says she is the only person now alive who is [familiat] [uncertain] with the incorporation and the incidents thereto, and that many inaccuracies [occur] [uncertain] in the Aldrich history. So if you or any one wants a true history of [Davy;] [uncertain]

Crocketts visit, you will have to [get] [uncertain] some one to see her" in person [while.] [uncertain] she can dictate. She is not able to write or type,

I wrote you a year or so ago, [giving]. [uncertain] some facts and early history, [which] [uncertain] I suppose you published and [intended] [uncertain] to send me a copy of the Courier. [But,] [uncertain] you sent the wrong edition, so [Ivel:] [uncertain] never seen the letter. [IT] [uncertain] have passed 92 and am still [able.] [uncertain] to do all I need to do. Also [passed;] [uncertain] my 80th year in the Methodist [church.] [uncertain] I am sure you will fine Josie and [I:] [uncertain] are the oldest Methodists and the [old-; est,] [uncertain] born and raised in Crockett, [now,] [uncertain] living. [My] [uncertain] church there [recognizes] [uncertain] me as the oldest living member as [of;] [uncertain] 1870, so has enrolled me for another 80 or less years. What think you [of,] [uncertain] the [history—your friendsef more:] [uncertain] than 50 years" standing? 1 [J.] [uncertain] M. [Foster,] [uncertain]

The parade will [start] [uncertain] at [2:30.] [uncertain] p.m, and, after it has com- l, [pleted] [uncertain] the parade route, Santa will talk with as many children as he has time before he has to leave for other towns and cities, e

CROCKETT PLAYS

ON TUESDAY NIGHT

The Crockett High Bulldogs will lose no time in breaking open the new basketball season. Starting practice Tuesday afternoon under Coach Robert Summers, they will go to Palestine next Tuesday night to play the Palestine High Wildcats. Coach Brim [Hales] [uncertain] Wildcats twice defeated the Bulldogs last season and will be favored, with a veteran Hneup, again this season. Coach Summers has an- [Thounced] [uncertain] a policy of letting his cagers learn to play by playing.

Some 25 candidates reported Tuesday afternoon, but a few of these announced they would not continue for physical reasons. Included among the candidates are Bob Lillian, tall center, [4,] [uncertain] who was a 1950 regular and letter man, and L. A. Parker, a 1949 letter man. All others are B team members of 1950 or inexperienced. Regulars of the B team out are Ray Johnson, Bobby Morrow, Jackie Corbitt and Joa Arledge. Arledge is presently handicapped with a broken finger suffered in football. 7

Despite the greenness of his squad, and lack of height, Summers was not downhearted Tuesday afternoon. He predicted a hustling team, even if not a winning one.

Thursday night, November 30, the Bulldogs will travel to Lovelady to a engage the veteran Lovelady High oe Lions oe
