GLADEWATER HOTEL MAN GETS HIS FEED AT COST

Our good friend, Mr. H. G. Bradley, who operates the Pickwick hotel at Gladewater, likes the Courier so well that he is subscribing for two copies, but requesting [thatwo] [uncertain] send only one copy to his Gladewater address. Our friend is generous in sharing his wealth with the Courier, which wo appreciate. He is likewise generous in sharing the Courier with friends in Groveton, Mr. Bradley once lived in Pennington but later at Groveton. He finally got up to Gladewater and engaged in the hotel business. He thought the name of the pioneer Pickwick hotel [at;] [uncertain] Crockett should be [perpeuated,] [uncertain] so nam-ed his hotel the Pickwick. We have been thinking of giving his hotel some patronage, if we ever get enough money, or little enough money. It is no [Shamrock—ngthing] [uncertain] sham about it. Viewed from the railroad, it has an inviting air to a tired, hungry and sleepy, but friendly, pedestrian. We may yet be able to make our friend a, visit. We hope so, and we wish to thank him in advance for future favors and, at the present time, for his past favors and continued friendship. He has a good eye.on Thanksgiving as he gets his feed at cost,.and raises the price to others when he bets on the wrong" football team.
