CROCKETT B TEAM DOWNS LATEXO TIGERS BY 19-12

Striking swiftly for two touchdowns at the outset, and getting a third quickly in the third quarter, the Crockett High B-team won over the inexperienced, but rapidly improving, La- text High Tigers Thursday night at Bulldog Stadium 19 to 12.

Crockett received and marched to a touchdown. Jerry Bob Temple skirted left end on a [pitchout] [uncertain] from 20 yards out to score. Latexo failed to gain after the kickoff and got off a Poor punt. Jimmy Shaver reversed right end for 24 yards to score. Joel Brooks kicked the extra point. Latexo grabbed a B team fumble later in the period. Gerald Hobson then ran 18 yards on a double reverse for the Tigers" first score. In the second quarter, on a [pitchout] [uncertain] play, Carl Buford ran around his right end for 53 yards to score. The half ended 13 to 12,

The [Crockett,] [uncertain] junior band put on a pleasing performance for the spectators between halves. It was the first public appearance for [these}] [uncertain] youngsters, who received deservedly large applause.

Early in the third period, Crockett intercepted a Tiger pass deep in [Lafexo] [uncertain] territory. Temple went for twelve around right end to the Tiger three and the same [pitchout] [uncertain] play sent [Shaver] [uncertain] around the left wing to score.

BULLDOGS DOWN MUSTANGS 34.6 [FIRST] [uncertain] TITLE GAME.

The Crockett High Bulldogs [openec] [uncertain] district play Friday night at Madison vile, and were ready. The result was ja 34 to 6 victory over a gallant, bu [outmanned,] [uncertain] crew of Mustangs. Madisonville received and on th second play big Joe Lindsey [slammec] [uncertain] through right guard, cut out and sped [50] [uncertain] yards to the Crockett 22-yard [linc] [uncertain] before Jackie Corbitt caught him. Ther the Mustangs learned the sad story. The Bulldogs had a rough defense,

After stopping the Mustangs, the Bulldogs took off, Joe. Arledge carried twice for a first down. Harrell Car- [penter] [uncertain] carried once, then" took an

Arledge pass to the Mustangs" 16- yard line, [Arledge"] [uncertain] carried for four, and a penalty put the ball on the Mustangs" one. Two Arledge plunges brought the- first score. Merle Lock got the only placement miss out of his system, and Crockett led 6 to 0.

Madisonville made two first downs before penalties and heavy losses forced them to kick. After an eX- change of punts, Crockett opened an 81-yard march in the" second period.

Only seven plays, two of them passes, were required. Corbitt raced through right tackle for 10 yards to score.

Lock converted. Corbitts long punt return set up the next score. A Corbitt to Arledge [acrial] [uncertain] ate up 26 yards. Lock converted, Halftime caught the Bulldogs on the Mustangs" one-yard line, with the" score 20 to, 0.

The. Crockett High band took" the field between halves to thrill the overflow crowd. The Madisonville High group followed and likewise put on a [finé] [uncertain] exhibition. [7] [uncertain]

Madisonville hawked a Crockett fumble after the Bulldogs received in the third period, but couldn't go. After an exchange of punts, Crockett moved 68 yards for a score, racking up five first downs en route. Corbitt dashed through right tackle for the final five yards and Lock converted. Crockett bagged a Mustang fumble, but had to kick and the Mustangs were forced to punt early in the fourth period. Crockett then moved 50 yards in seven plays, a 16-yard toss from Arledge to Bob Lillian" over the goal line getting the touchdown, Lock converted,

In the final minute, [Madisonville] [uncertain] recovered a punt touched by Corbitt on the Crockett 14-yard line, J, [Lind«[: sey] [uncertain] passed to Clyde Starns on. [Crock-] tts] [uncertain] 4.
