[eroment tas] [uncertain] lifted all [reutrietionn] [uncertain] or cotton production in 1061 but has not yet [Indicated] [uncertain] whether It will boot price guarantees to pet on needed

[iny ereano] [uncertain] in the nice of the crop, [Secretary] [uncertain] of Agriculture Brannan announced Inte Tuenday that rigid ne- rage allotments and marketing quo- tun in effect thin year will be [sus] [uncertain] pended for the next yearn crop,

In taking thin action, the [xeerelury] [uncertain] said the nation need nt least two- thirds more cotton than farmers grew this yen. Otherwine, ft might run

[illegible or non-text passage omitted — see scan]

Av unusually short crop this year and a heavier market demand thin had been expected have reduced over- all supplies to a Jewel that threatens a shortage in some grades,

Some grower representatives have and that higher price supports than those in effect now will be needed to encourage farmers to expand produc- [tion] [uncertain] to the desired level,

But) [Brannan] [uncertain] said nothing about

1961 price supports, except that there will be a support program with no strings attached. This year farmers, had to comply with restrictions in or- [der] [uncertain] to be eligible for supports,

[Under] [uncertain] normal-time provisions of farm law, the department must sup port the 1951 crop at between 80 and 90 per cent of parity, Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices.

It is declared by law to be equally fair to farmers and those who buy his products. The government is pledged to support this years crop at 90 per cent, but market prices are fur above the support figure.

Under emergency conditions, the department may support prices at lev- els higher than 90 per cent, if it deems them necessary to encourage produc- [tion.] [uncertain]

It may be that the department will go on the assumption that lifting of controls and a 90 per cent support rate will be sufficient inducement to farmers. Many producers in the

Crockett Courier — October 5, 1950

Southeast have been shifting farming operations from cotton to livestock in recent years. Whether many of these farmers will want to shift back to cotton for a possible short-term pe- [riod] [uncertain] of expansion is a question that cannot be answered.

At any rate, officials say it is rea- [sonable] [uncertain] to assume that there will be a sharp expansion in the Mississippi

Delta area, Texas, Oklahoma and Cal- [ifornia,] [uncertain] Cotton production has been moving westward for the past sev- [eral] [uncertain] decades. Production costs gen- [erally] [uncertain] are lower there, Corbitt was jarred loose from the ball on a [J] [uncertain] hard suckle at the Indians 4-yard [J] [uncertain] mark, The Crockett High band put [ona] [uncertain] splendid exhibition between halves, the delight of the rather sparse crowd.

A bad snapback and costly loss ruing [yed aBulldog] [uncertain] threat early in the second half. Grand Saline got off a fine punt and Crockett started from her own [27-yard] [uncertain] line, as the quarter ended, The Bulldogs continued the drive in the fourth period, [wiheh] [uncertain] culminated in a 29-yard dash around his right [jend] [uncertain] by Corbitt for a touchdown, Lock kicked the extra point,

Thryogh a misunderstanding, Crock- [ett] [uncertain] failed to punt on fourth down and the ball went over on the Crock- [ett] [uncertain] 37-yard line. The [Indians] [uncertain] started a hard drive, but Corbitt snared a Grand Saline pass on the Crockett 6-yard line and the Bulldogs ran the clock out.

First downs were 7 for Crockett,

5 for Grand Saline,

Corbitt and Joe Arledge paced the Crockett attack. Lock was perhaps the leading performer in a rugged

Crockett defense. Grand Salines line- backers turned in top performances.

G. Long, Love and Luther Warner sparked the Indians" offense.

LATEXO [TIGERS] [uncertain] PLAY CROCKETT B HERE THURSDAY

The Latexo High Tigers will come to Crockett tonight [(Thursday)] [uncertain] for their second game of football. The hefty and willing Tigers showed prom-[ise] [uncertain] last week in their game with Elkhart B, at Elkhart, although the lack of experience weighed heavily against them. Such husky youngsters as Allen, Matchett, Buford, Graham,

Harrington and others bid fair to develop into capable [gridders] [uncertain] before the season is over. Coach Jesse Lee Sadler has accomplished much in a short time with the green and white [clad] [uncertain] squad,

The Crockett B team has lost both its games, to Centerville High 19 to 6 and to Buffalo 26 to 0, but the smallish youngsters have shown promise of developing into capable first-string [gridders] [uncertain] in future seasons. In fact, Coach Dusty Simmons last week dipped into the B team ranks and elevated Billy Cook, Bud Crawford and Buddy Robinson to the A squad. All these figured in the seasons first victory, gained over Grand Saline.

The B team probably will continue to use the T formation, at which they have shown considerable adeptness. The Tigers will operate from the single-wing style.

IS GREAT IN THE

[A] [uncertain] pretty girl at) the [Dallas] [uncertain] fair took this editors picture Saturday morning, an incident aver which the editor, being a bachelor, became [vory] [uncertain] pleased, excited, complimented, self praised, gratified and even flattered, but not fatigued. He even felt Inuded and eulogized, While she [didnt] [uncertain] say so, he just felt that this goad-lookingz girl wanted the picture only for her- self, But the picture appeared in Sunday mornings Dallas News, and sales in Dallas were so great that the edition containing the picture was soon taken by Dallas people. The edition that [cnrme] [uncertain] to Crockett [didnt] [uncertain] contain this picture, but this editor [didnt] [uncertain] know it until he asked his friends if they had seen his picture in the News, The ointment contain- ing the fly was that none of them had seen it. His suspicion aroused, he ascertained that the edition containing the picture did not reach Croc- [kett,] [uncertain] all of them having been taken in Dallas. Its a shame that a great newspaper like the Dallas News should have, whether deliberately or not, de- [prived] [uncertain] their [Crockett"] [uncertain] readers of at least a look of what was going on.

It is not the duty of a newspaper to withhold from any community any picture of news and persons that might correct wrong impressions if published. It was a good picture and the News did the Courier editor no favor by withholding it. We are not blaming it on Jack Estes, circulation manager of the Dallas News, for nothing would have pleased him better than to have circulated that picture fall over [Crockett—littered] [uncertain] up the town with it.

With others the road may have been easy, but the. Courier editors mind was young, untrained and timid. [Hehad] [uncertain] heard that hardships make the man, a doctrine which he believed and

The editors brother, Tom Aiken, who, on account of ill-health, has been away from Crockett several years, is yet hopeful of recovery and sends his re- [gards] [uncertain] and best wishes to his Crockett t friends. On Saturday the Dallas fair opened, and the Courier editor, along with many other Texas editors, was there on invitation of the fair association. We thought they might want us to lead the parade, if they had heard of our having a [chollyhoss"] [uncertain] the night before, but they [hadnt] [uncertain] heard [Lo] [uncertain] of it, and advised that we follow the parade. The fair gets bigger and bigger every [year—it] [uncertain] is now so big that you cant see the exhibits for the fair. The editors were given complimentary tickets and invited to see the play, South Pacific," Saturday afternoon, They must have had too much rain [inthat] [uncertain] South Pacific island from the amount of grass and fig leaves dis-played by its female and male citizens ought to make the men wear and harvest more of it. But the show is fine and highly [enjoyable—lots] [uncertain] of music and [dancing—and] [uncertain] songs. What promises to-be the finest and most entertaining annual convention [Cee] [uncertain] wy ever held by the Texas Editorial Association will be the 1950 meetings at Laredo and Monterrey, Mexico, on November 15, 16, 17 and 18th, Membership in this association requires twenty years of editorial experience and management. It is known as the. Old Edjtors Association. A pleasing memory to the Crockett Courier editor is his attendance of these meetings at [Brownsville,] [uncertain] San. Benito, Harlingen, Weslaco, Edinburg, McAllen, Mission, Laredo and El Paso. This will be this editors second convention at Laredo and Monterrey, and it will be a great disappointment to him if he is prevented from attending [this'] [uncertain] one.
