A PAGE FROM THE
ROMANS.

Five generations have enjoyed the [bloasings] [uncertain] of America as a [Républic.] [uncertain]

Today ila lenders should be wish enough to take a lesson from the Grooks and know" that when the gov[ernment] [uncertain] gives to Poter, it must take from Paul.

Back in the glorious days of the mighty Roman empire when Augustus

Saesar was in kingly power, he too improvised u system of taxation that provided free food for any who de- aired it. Soon no one toiled, for why work when Rome [wouldfeed] [uncertain] you?

Soon there was so much idleness that

Augustus had to create huge amuse[ment] [uncertain] places to try and keep down the delinquency of the many who worked not but were using their pent up [enorgy] [uncertain] in ways that were destroy- ing much of the property of the land.

And as taxes were doing plenty to destroy the Reman property, Cnosar had to keep those idle men amused.

To get enough money to feed the idle, again and again he had to tax more and more. According to St.

Luke:

And it came to pass in those days that there went forth a decree from

Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed."

The death of Augustus did not stop the folly. Nero- went him one bet- [ter.] [uncertain] He imported lions and tigers to entertain the growing numbers and pitched a few Christians to the lions in the [Coliscum] [uncertain] to keep the mob en-

Then the barbarians took over when the Caesars could no longer get money out of a people impoverished by ex- [cessive] [uncertain] taxation.

The barbarians gave nothing but took what was left of the peoples h [eee] [uncertain] property. So the [Romans]
[uncertain] starved.

In the city of Rome alone more than one million died from starvation within a week, and for [gencrations] [uncertain] Rome was bankrupt and its glory dimmed forever.

Greece, Rome, Russia, Bohemia,

Turkey, Germany, Italy, France and many more great nations have suf- [fered] [uncertain] because of bureaucrats, kings or dictators who taxed the workers of their land to gain power for them- selves and funds for their radical ideas,

[uncertain] to read and reread the Bible in [the]] [uncertain] near future. The occasion is [National:] [uncertain] 7

[uncertain] sponsored by the Laymens [National,] [uncertain] committee. The [uncertain] me persons of all faiths and that all turn again to the Holy Scriptures.

[uncertain] unemployment because it takes away funds upon which enterprise must depend in order to keep constantly improving. It destroys every incentive to start new enterprises and thus put people to work. We should all [want] [uncertain]

Someone has said that the greatest power in tho world is not that of [elec-even atomic power. The greatest [power] [uncertain] in the world is the power of a new idea which can put hundreds of [thou-'] [uncertain] sands of men to work at good wages in an industry which never existed before. Tf it were possible for Hopkinsville to add a dozen new small industries, started by our local citizens, with the hope that they could get and retain their profits and not have them taken away by high taxes we could have prosperity. And, if this happened throughout the land, it would mean more

HEARNE HANDS BULLDOGS 40.6 DEFEAT [FRIDAY] [uncertain]

A big, fast and rough Hearne High Eagles football team handed the [Crockett] [uncertain] High Bulldogs a 40 to 6 defeat on the Hearne field Friday night. The [Kagles scored] [uncertain] three quick touchdowns in the second quarter to lead 28 to Oat the half. They added two more scores in the second half before the Bulldogs finally stepped them. Late in the game Crockett punched out her only score, with Joe Arledge plunging over for the counter, Crocketts usually effective defense failed before the Eagle attack. The Bulldogs could never work their T-formation plays, but had some success running from single-wing.

farl Red, big end, suffered a knee injury carly in the game. Several others were below par physically. The game marked Hearn's fourth straight victory. Bobby Pardo was the Eagles' offensive star, [accounting] [uncertain] for three touchdowns. Gordon [Brooks,.] [uncertain] Bob Jones and Pynus [McNeil account-] [uncertain] ed for the other Hearne [touchdowns.] [uncertain] Bruce Neumann kicked four extra points.

The Crockett High band put on an excellent performance between halves.

LATEXO BEGINS [FOOTBALL] [uncertain] PLAY THURSDAY [NIGHT] [uncertain]

The" Latexo High Tigers will, play their first football game tonight [(Thursday)] [uncertain] when they meet the Elkhart High B team on the Elkhart field. It will be a stiff test for the Tigers, for [alt] [uncertain] of whom it will be the first game experience in football, [Elk.] [uncertain] hart has a large squad of boys, more than 40 out, and the B team has some capable performers, who show up well in scrimmage with the Elk regulars.

Conch Jesse Lee Sadler has a [large] [uncertain] squad at Latexo, limited only in equipment. The candidates are of good size and have some fast boys in the number, The [squadmen] [uncertain] are willing and eager, They are handicapped only by lack of experience. Just how they will show up in their first game is problematical for that reason. However, before the season is over, Sadler should have a fairly capable eleven.

The second game for the Tigers will be Thursday night, October 12, against the Crockett High B team at Bulldog Stadium.
