A full schedule of events is slated for the fourth Annual American Le- [gion] [uncertain] Fair and Livestock Show at Crockett on September 26 to 30th, in[clusive,] [uncertain] The dairy cattle chairman,

Nathan Shroyer, states that the dairymen have supplemented the regular premium list to bring the total prizes to $700 in a classification type show. The poultry department, under direc- [tion] [uncertain] of Leroy Faver, will again exhibit some outstanding birds of the type that almost swept the premiums at the Houston show following our county. [fair] [uncertain] last year; [Houston] [uncertain] county F. F. A and 4-H Club exhibits will be directed by-E.-R. Keels.
Edd Buller is busy contacting owners of dogs to make up an outstanding event in his department. Wesley Brent advises that adequate shade and shelter will be provided this year for swine exhibits and entries are increasing daily. General farm exhibits will be under direction of Cecil Deaumon, who may be contacted through the veterans" school. Charlie, V. Hanning, county agent, will be in charge of the Junior Steer Show, and a sale of these animals is scheduled at 8 p m on Friday night, September 29.

In the ladies" division, principal activities will be directed by Mrs. George Gaines, Miss Carolyn Darsey, Mrs. Sam Caskey, Mrs. Leonard Barnes, Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. Jim Cook, Mrs. Hill Huff, Miss Gretchen English and other ladies working with adults and young home-makers.

A publicity and tour committee, composed of B. B. Sherron, H. B. Knox and Joe Roach, will visit towns in the vicinity of [Houston] [uncertain] county prior to the fair. [Chairman] [uncertain] C.H. Reid of the parade committee will" be ably assisted by H. J. Trube Sr and George Reed. Those interested in taking part in the opening parade on Tuesday, September 26, are requested to contact members of the parade committee and [com-| plete] [uncertain] arrangements as soon as possible. Nine cash prizes will again be given in various divisions of the pa- hf made.

Concessior privileges are under di-section of Joe Clonts, assisted by Her- 4
