[WHAT TWO STRONG (OULD) [uncertain] MEAN TO THIS

We, in Houston County, have adopt- ed the only effective Way to get two-party state, as was stated in an- other recent editorial of the Dallas.

Morning News, re-printed August [35g] [uncertain]

1950 in the Crockett Courier, ag fol-& lows:

Texas Republicans have opened their election campaign with a vigor that,if continued, will put some life into the November race. Ralph W i

Currie of Dallas, candidate for gov- q [ernor,] [uncertain] is correct in" calling Texas a political orphan. The Democrats in Washington ignore this state because they regard it as in the bag. [The°] [uncertain] Republicans do the same because they think they have no chance here. [Mak-] [uncertain] ing Texas a truly two-party state would bring more, national attention from both major parties,

The Texas GOP has a platform that should appeal to conservative Democrats more than does the one of their own party. What the Republicans have to fight here is the weight of the brass collar. They can do that more effectively when they quit quarreling among themselves and campaign to win elections instead of to control patronage. They can make Texas a two-party state only after they quit voting in" Democratic pri- marines, organize their party from t grass roots and put candidates every county race and keep the" Ok [ganization] [uncertain] active between elections. With many Texas Democrats dissatisfied with their [partys] [uncertain] leftist leadership, the time is ripe for greater GOP initiative here."

Wigh Tigers, outplayed the first half wore down the [Croekett. Wyeh] [uncertain] Bull dogs of Conch Durty [Sthomonn Mriday] [uncertain] yy night and scored a 14 to 0 [vietory] [uncertain] in t the [reanonn] [uncertain] opening football prime at Bulldog Stadium.

Crockett gained two first downs in the first quarter and three in the gee- [ond, Silabee] [uncertain] getting one in the second period. [Crockett:] [uncertain] wan threatening at the [ond] [uncertain] of the half and only inability of receivers to enter accurate parses appeared to prevent Crockett snoring,

In the third period, Silsbee recover- ed one of many Crockett fumbles on the [Crockett, S0-yard.] [uncertain] line, A.W.

Million found Jim Jones for a puny completion to reach the Croekett 17, then hit Homer Holland on the you line for a touchdown, Billy Joe Me-

Gowan place-kicked the extra point,

On the Inst play of the period, Silahee hawked smother Bulldog miscue on the home dk-yard line, Enrly in the final period, the visitors scored again.

McGowan faked a pass, then circled his own left end for 15 yards. [Me-] [uncertain]

Gowan converted.

Crockett threatened [onee] [uncertain] more Inte in the game, but could not go against the heavy visitors. [First"] [uncertain] downs fa- [vored] [uncertain] Crockett, 12 to 4.

McGowan puked Silsbee on offense and defense, Holland, James Cald- well and Sammy Quisenberry were defensive standouts. L. A. Parker, game captain, and Jimmie Adams played well defensively for Crockett,

Harrell Carpenter was perhaps

Crocketts most successful ball car- [rier,] [uncertain] as he held onto the ball better.

Crockett Courier — September 21, 1950

An overflow crowd was on hand for the contest, including many who made the long trip from Silsbee.

Between halves the Silsbee High band took the field and delighted the crowd. Director George [Reeds] [uncertain] Crock- [ett] [uncertain] High band then thrilled the spec- [tators] [uncertain] with a clever routine.

BULLDOGS 60 TO FRANKLIN FOR FRIDAY NIGHT GAME

The Crockett High Bulldogs will travel to Franklin Friday night for a contest with Coach Joe Hedricks

Franklin High [Lions,] [uncertain] The Bulldogs probably are in for a terrific battle.

They defeated the Lions here last season 25 to 13 in a rip-roaring duel and the Franklin crew has been anx- [ious] [uncertain] for a return engagement ever since.

Crockett Courier — September 21, 1950

Franklin lost some of the stars of that 1949 aggregation, but still has a husky line and a" capable backfield.

The backfield is built around Watson, clever running and passing quarter- back, who makes the Lions" split-T offense go. Simmons is also a good back.

Like Crockett, the Franklin team tasted [defgnt] [uncertain] last week, bowing to

Taylor at Taylor 31 to 6. Assistant

Coach Robert Summers scouted the game at Taylor. He reports that

Franklin looked like a lot better team than the score of their first game indicates.

Coach Dusty Simmons, not too [much] [uncertain] displeased at the showing of his [Bull-:] [uncertain] dogs against Silsbee, pitched into intensive training Monday for the Franklin encounter.
