signers of this manifesto, They include

Senators Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin,
H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey, Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Towa, and Henry Capot Lodge Jr of Massachusetts.
Incidentally, Senator Lodge, who drafted the manifesto, was the chairman of the platform [commit-}] [uncertain] tee at the 1948 Republican National

MUST VOTE AS IT TALKS,

From the Cuero Record. [t—Virginia-Doss,a-splendid-editoriatisty] [uncertain] of the Southern Weekly, published at Dallas, has a very fine article in the current issue. In it she pointed out the [incorsistency] [uncertain] of most southern people in the way they talk and the way they vote. To bring the message to the reader more forcefully, she quoted at length from a speech [recently] [uncertain] delivered on the senate [flooy] [uncertain] by Senator Karl E. Mundt, Republican of South Dakota. He asked if the south was really against the FEPC of the New Deal-Fair Deal? [Or] [uncertain] the Brannan plan, socialized." medicine, [ete?"] [uncertain] He went on to state that [the:] [uncertain] south talks against all of them, but votes er straight when they go to the polls. In the meantime, according to the Mundt speech, the northern Democrats" laugh at the south behind their hands, and use us for a public whipping boy. They also ignore the south at national conventions, The northern Trumancrats refer to us as reactionaries, obstructionists, Dixiecrats, Tories, horse and buggy citizens still quoting Mundt. The present so-called Democratic party is completely under the control of northern city bosses and pressure and minority groups.
