

The Crockett Courier.

Entered as Second Class Matter at Crockett Postoffice.

CROCKETT, TEXAS, SEPTEMBER 7, 1950

60 Years a Home Institution.

Volume LXI—Number 37

Silsbee High Tigers Come Here Friday Night, First 1950 Game

Couch I. B. Griffith will bring his Silsbee High Tigers here for the first football game of the 1950 season Friday night. Silsbee's probable starting lineup shows a 171-pound average in the line, 151 pounds in the backfield and 164 pounds overall. Crockett will counter with a 156-pound line, 145-pound backfield and a 152-pound overall starting average. This gives the visitors a 12-pound pull in weights. Griffith is assisted by Lou Riezi as line coach.

Silsbee lists eight returning letter men, seven of them starting. Crockett's Bulldogs, tutored by Duncy Simmons and Robert Swannum, show ten letter men, eight starting. However, Crockett lost eight starters from the 1949 powerhouse.

Silsbee will run from the T and single wing formations, with unbalanced line. Crockett will likewise use this strategy.

Silsbee's colors are maroon and white and the Tigers will wear white jerseys.

Game time is 8 o'clock, which will be the starting time of all home games and of all district games.

Neither team has played a game. However, Crockett has had two practice scrimmages, the first against Kirbyville and the second against Mexico, 1949 state finalists. The latter scrimmage, last Friday at Mexico, saw the Crockett team pushed around, but their defense looked better than previously. Crockett's aerial game clicked for two "touchdowns," while the defense yielded four to the Black Cats.

GRAPELAND PLAYS AT LOVELADY ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The Grapeland High Sandies will play the Lovelady High Lions Friday night on Memorial Field at Lovelady in the opening football game for both schools. Grapeland plays in district 18-A and is much more advanced in training. Coaches Burleson and Darrell Shaver having begun practice

August 16. Lovelady is a member of district 30-B and had spring training, but could not start fall work until September 1. The Sandies won at Grapeland last fall, 24 to 0.

Grapeland expects an improved team, with a heavier line, not too experienced. Veterans man the backfield posts. Altogether, 42 candidates are on the Sandies squad.

Lovelady has only five 1949 letter men, but has about 30 boys out and expects to field at least as good a team as in '49.

Grapeland has had two practice scrimmages against Tengeue.

Game time is 7:45 for the Friday night contest.

Mrs. Jacob E. Caprielian

JACOB E. CAPRIELIAN, MARY CRADDOCK WED

Miss Mary Louise Craddock, 6027 Live Oak, became the bride of Jacob Edward Caprielian, 6601 Airline Road, Saturday evening in the First Methodist church of Winnboro.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Craddock of Winnboro. Mr. and Mrs. P. Caprielian of Crockett are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Jack H. Ellzey, pastor, read the ceremony for which Mrs. J. E. Old and Gus Tassos of Dallas presented the music.

Mr. Craddock gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's white marquisette gown was designed with a deep oval neckline encircled by a wide ruffle of marquisette. The sleeves were short and puffed, and the bride's gauntlets terminated in petal points. From the back of the bodice a cascade of ruffles extended down the back panel and formed a wide train. A single ruffle finished the hemline of the full skirt, which was worn over hoops.

The bridal veil of imported illusion was caught to a bonnet of pleated tulle with a wreath of pearlized orange blossoms.

A white orchid centered the bride's bouquet of white carnations and ma-line showered with satin streamers in which were tied tube-rose blossoms.

Miss Phyllis DeGraw of Dallas was maid of honor and Fred L. Williams of Dallas was best man.

Nancy Craddock of Carthage, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Bridesmaids were Mrs. J. D. Craddock of Winnboro, Mrs. Pat Morris of Price and Miss Virginia Morgan of Dallas.

Groomsmen were Robert Caprielian, Collin A. Lockfield Jr. and Joe Fielding Warren, all of Crockett; Myron Rejebian of Dallas and Dr. R. C. Craddock and Paul Craddock, the bride's brothers, ushered.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where Miss Mary Rejebian of Dallas registered guests. Mrs. Henry Wilkie and Mrs. William Edwards presided at the cake. Other members of the house party were Miss Jeanne Johnson, Miss La Verne Golden of Dallas and Mrs. M. C. Hawkins of Winnboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Caprielian will live at 3807 Hudnell after a wedding trip to California. The bride traveled in a toast-colored gabardine suit, an olive-green melusine hat with matching veiling and alligator accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Caprielian attended North Texas State College and the University of Texas. She belongs to Beta Sigma Phi sorority. Her husband was graduated from the University of Texas and is a member of Alpha Delta Sigma honorary fraternity.

SHOWER FOR MISS LILLIAN JORDAN AND JOE DRISKELL

A miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Lillian Jordan of Weldon and Mr. Joe Lynn Driskell was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Montgomery in Lovelady August 29, from 8 to 10 p. m. by a group of their friends.

Guests were greeted on the opulent lawn by the host, who directed them to the register table.

The living room was beautifully decorated with roses in shades of pink, together with pink coral vine and white asters.

Madame Lon Jeter, J. H. Chick, D. A. Montgomery and F. M. Brown served delicious "white and tea" refreshments. The guests were then invited to follow a garden path across the hedge to a cozy little house.

At the door of this little house stood the happy fated couple, who directed the guests from room to room, where everything was fresh and new, and almost completely furnished with gifts from loved ones.

The trail then led back to the lawn where more than one hundred relatives and friends of Weldon and Lovelady had gathered to wish Joe and Lillian much happiness.

LOCAL MARINE HURT IN KOREA

A list of Marine Corps casualties appearing in the daily newspapers Sunday listed a Crockett boy. Listed as wounded in action was PFC Millard Chris Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Malone, whose address was given as Star Rt., Crockett. The wounded Marine's family had been notified previously of the wounding of the local boy.

SERGEANT OBIE L. KELLEY IN KOREA

With the First Cavalry Division in Korea, Sergeant Obie L. Kelley, son of Mr. John W. Kelley of Route 4, Crockett, Texas, is in Korea as a member of the First U. S. Cavalry Division, fighting against the North Korean invaders.

Sergeant Kelley, who was among the initial troops of the division to land in Korea at the outbreak of war, has duties as a section sergeant in charge of an 81 millimeter mortar section of the Eighth Cavalry regiment. He has been with his present unit since July of 1949.

During World War II, Sgt. Kelley was with "D" troop (now company) 12th Cavalry regiment, during all the island hopping campaigns the division made in the Pacific. He first entered the military service in April of 1943.

Mrs. Don McReynolds

GERALDINE DAILEY DON McREYNOLDS WED IN CROCKETT

Miss Geraldine Dailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith Dailey of 814 Clark avenue, Crockett, became the bride of Don McReynolds of Jeannette, Pennsylvania, at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, September 2, in the First Baptist church of Crockett. Rev. A. S. Lee, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The whole of the church interior was beautiful in its decorations. The background was of clematis and smilax. An arch of candles, with greenery background in the raised baptistry, wrought iron arch in center, and floor baskets of gladiolas and asters (white) on each side of arch, gave added beauty to an artistic arrangement, with candelabras used throughout. The aisle markers were single candles, tied with satin ribbon and fern.

The wedding organist was Mrs. Earl McClain, and Miss Carrie Williams of Brenham was soloist. The selections were "I Love Thee" and the "Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Robert Smith Dailey. She chose a gown of blush white satin that fashioned an intricate design of matching beaded circles extending across the yoke; a fitted basque bodice, long fitted sleeves which tapered to petal points over her hands, and a fully gathered skirt which swept into a graceful formal train. Her fingertip veil of matching illusion fell in full graceful tiers from a white tiara.

Her bouquet was a satin-covered Bible, white orchids and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. Milton Dailey, sister-in-law, (of Grapeland) wore a horizon blue net over taffeta with bouffant skirt and net circle. Her headpiece was of yellow daisy chrysanthemums, with matching nets. She carried yellow daisy chrysanthemums, with folial emphasis at top and with graceful streamers of daisy mums.

Bridesmaids were Misses Arlene Foster of Kenedy; Zodie LeMay, Miriam Robertson and Sunshine Rogers of Crockett; Mrs. Jack Shultz of Grapeland and Mrs. Leo Skidmore of Pasadena. They wore identical dresses as that of the maid of honor.

The flower girl, Miss Kathryn Fitzgerald of Amarillo, wore a horizon blue net over taffeta.

The best man was Von McReynolds, brother of the groom, from Jeannette, Pa.

Groomsmen were Bob Reeves, Groves, Texas; Jasper Jones, Charles Spain and Rosa Allee, Crockett; Milton Dailey and Jack Shultz, Grapeland.

The mother of the bride wore an original model of mauve crepe with Alenco lace yoke. Her hat was of mauve hued net, accented with a single rose, black accessories, orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a beige satin and crepe dress, brown accessories, orchid corsage.

The reception following the ceremony was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Callaway, where the bride's table was covered with an imported lace table cover, centered with an arrangement of white asters and tube roses. The bride's three-tiered cake, embossed with wedding bells, and punch were served by Mrs. Ben Perdue and Mrs. Walter Morgan. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Raymond Callaway and Mrs. Clifford Pennington, Crockett; Mrs. Mose Henry Spence, Mrs. Jack Dailey, Mrs. Mike Dailey and Mrs. Henry Dailey Jr., Grapeland; Miss Ruth Ellen Dailey, Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. Ike Daniel, Deer Park. Presiding at the register was Miss Jo Ann Dailey of Grapeland.

The bride chose a travelling suit of tableau blue milaine with a hand detailed blouse. Her hat and other accessories were of acorn brown, with corsage of white orchids.

The couple will make their home in Waco, Texas. The bride is a graduate of Crockett High School and a senior at Baylor University, where her fraternity was Kappa Phi.

The groom is a graduate of Port Neches High School, Port Neches, Texas, and a senior in Baylor Law School, where his fraternity membership was in Phi Alpha Delta.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Bob Wherry of Memphis, Texas; Mrs. Otha Fitzgerald of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. James Woodruff of Matador, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Metcalf of Franklin, Mrs. Henry Dailey Sr. and daughter, Ruth Ellen, of Tucson, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Ike Daniel of Deer Park, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Martin McReynolds and son, Ted, of Jeannette, Pa.

ERRONEOUS REPORT GIVEN ON GRAND JURY ACTIVITY

An erroneous report gained circulation last week that a special grand jury investigation was being made here in regard to alleged tampering with absentee ballots in the county clerk's office. The news report concerned such activity at Conroe, but the name of Crockett was substituted for Conroe in transmission of a news report by a news agency. When queried, the news agency quickly corrected the report. A regular grand jury was in session here the first of last week, but investigated only routine grand jury matters, so far as has been reported. The Houston county group quickly completed its labors and recessed.

Mrs. Charles Taylor

MISS ALMA LOYCE KNOX, CHARLES M. TAYLOR WED

In a candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening, September 6, at the First Methodist church, Miss Alma Loyce Knox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Knox, became the bride of Charles Marcus Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rush Taylor.

Father W. A. Riemann, rector of St. Phillip's Episcopal church, Palestine, read the double-ring ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Leslie LaGrand.

The altar arch of the church was half filled with shiny magnolia leaves, topped by a huge white net fan lighted softly from behind. White cathedral tapers in wrought iron candelabras were placed at either side of the white satin pillow on which the couple knelt for the final prayer.

The rostrum was decorated at either side with large bouquets of white chrysanthemums on fluted columns, and clusters of green tapers in white standards placed before green pleated half fans. The choir rail was covered with tiny white pleated fans decorated with a garland of green leaves, and lighted by green candles in curved holders. The family pews were marked with dainty white net fans.

The candles were lighted preceding the ceremony by Rush Taylor Jr., brother of the bridegroom, and Reed Ferguson Jr. The wedding music was provided by Mrs. A. M. Decuir, organist, and Mrs. Jamie Dawson of Bryan, soloist, who sang "O, Perfect Love" and "I Love Thee."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the dress worn by her two sisters at their weddings. It was fashioned of the traditional bridal satin with a yoke of illusion encrusted with seed pearls. The long fitted sleeve tapered to points over the hands and the skirt swept into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls.

Miss Betty Joyce Knox attended her twin sister as maid of honor attired in a gown of white nylon tulle with matching stole. She carried a fan of white nylon net and red carnations. The bridesmaids, Misses Grace Ar-ledge, Mary Byrde Meriwether, Emily Wood of Crockett, Miss Minnie Lewis Sory of Livingston and Mrs. Betty Jean Bailey of Baytown, wore red nylon tulle patterned after the maid of honor's dress. They carried fans of white nylon net and tube roses.

Little Misses Linda Knox and Pamela Hill were flower girls. They wore white organdy with lace aprons and on their heads were bands of white net in which were nestled white rose buds.

John R. King Jr. served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were Donn Currey, Bobby Beal, H. B. Knox, Jimmy Dupuy of Memphis, Tennessee, and Lee Arthur Clayton of Little Rock, Arkansas. Bob Mattox and Willie Hayne Knox were head ushers.

Mrs. Knox wore ice grey crepe with rhinestone trim, and navy and grey accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid. Mrs. Taylor chose green lace gown worn with brown accessories and a brown orchid corsage.

At the reception which followed immediately at the home of the bride's parents, the cake was served by Mrs. H. B. Knox and Mrs. Willie Hayne Knox. Mrs. Bob Mattox and Mrs. Jim Dan Hill served the punch.

Mrs. Donald Brown and Miss Betty J. Murray presided at the guest register, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Barkley, Miss Donna Davis, Mrs. Bobby Beal and Mrs. Donn Currey assisted in the gift room.

Others in the house party were Mrs. Paul Stokes, Mrs. Jim Gibbs, Miss Joann Viser of Madisonville, Mrs. Jack Hart of Baytown, Miss Dian Bennett, Mrs. Glover Morrow, Mrs. Smith Baughman, Mrs. T. E. Walden and Mrs. Irene Sholkofsky of Houston.

The bride left for her wedding trip wearing a grey gabardine suit with dark brown accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

She is a graduate of Crockett High School and Sam Houston State Teachers' College where she was a member of the Anne Gibbs Literary Society, Club. Mr. Taylor is a graduate of Crockett High School and of Sam Houston State Teachers' College where he was president of the Esquire Club and a member of the Esquire Club. He also attended the University of Texas where his fraternity was Phi Kappa Sigma.

The couple will make their home in Dallas.

Crockett Courier — September 7, 1950

4 r

[ntered] [uncertain] as Second lags Ma
Silsbee High Ti Friday Night,

Couch [J] [uncertain] Griffith will bring) core [Silnbeo] [uncertain] High Tigers here for the fir football game of the 1060 [neuen Fv] [uncertain] day night.
Silnbeoy probable star ing Hneup shown a [7] [uncertain] pound [averng] [uncertain] y in the [Hue, IbL] [uncertain] pounds in the ball a [field] [uncertain] and 164 pounds overall, [Crocke:] [uncertain]

will counter with a) [16@4poand] [uncertain] lin

*[illegible or non-text passage omitted —
see scan]*

*[illegible or non-text passage omitted —
see scan]*

tho [vinitorn] [uncertain] on [1.]
[uncertain] pound pull j

Welghts. Griffith da insisted by Lo

Rienzi an line coach,

Silnbee Hats [olyht] [uncertain] returning ledge mien, oven of them starting. Croel

*[illegible or non-text passage omitted —
see scan]*

letter men, eight [nturting, Joweve]
[uncertain]

Crockett lost eight starters from th Silsbee will rum from the To an

GRAPELAND [PLAYS] [uncertain] AT LOVELADY ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The [Grapetand:] [uncertain] High Sandies [wil] [uncertain] play the Lovelady High Lions [Frida:] [uncertain]

night on Memorial Field at [Lovelads] [uncertain] in the opening football game for [bot] [uncertain] schools. Grapeland plays in [distri] [uncertain]

18-A and is much more advanced j training, Couches Burleson and Dar [rell] [uncertain] Shaver having begun practice

Mrs. Jacob JACOB E.

CAPRIELIAN, MARY CRADDOCK WED

Miss Mary Louise Craddock, 6027

Live Oak, became the bride of Jacob

Edward Caprielian, 6601 Airline Road, Saturday evening in-the First Methodist church of Winnsboro.

os She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs eo O. W. Craddock of Winnsboro. Mr and Mrs. P. Caprielian of Crockett are the bridegrooms parents,

The Rev. Jack H. Ellzey, pastor, read the ceremony for which Mrs. J.-E. Old and Gus. Tassos of Dallas presented the music. Mr. Craddock gave his daughter in marriage. The brides white mar- [quissette] [uncertain] gown was designed with a deep oval neckline encircled by a wide raffle of marquisette. The sleeves

*[illegible or non-text passage omitted —
see scan]*

gauntlets terminated in petal points.

From the back of the bodice a cascade of ruffles extended down the back panel and formed a wide train.

A single ruffle finished the hemline of the full skirt, which was worn over hoops.

The bridal veil of imported illusion was caught to a bonnet of pleated [Hulle] [uncertain] with a wreath of [pearlized])
[uncertain] Prange blossoms,

A white orchid centered the [bridal])
[uncertain]

The [igers] [uncertain] Come Here First 1950 Game

Unpalngle wing formations, with una [ribfanced Tne,] [uncertain] Crockett will [Tkewine] [uncertain] us [ri-]) [uncertain] thin strategy. [rt-] Silabees [uncertain] colors are maroon an [velwhite] [uncertain] and the [Tigern] [uncertain] will wear whit [ke] Jornoyn, [uncertain]
tt) Game time ts 8 clock, [whieh] [uncertain] wi [t,]) [uncertain] bo the starting time of all home game [ndand] [uncertain] of all [dintriet] [uncertain] gunmen, [es}] [uncertain] Neither tenth has played al pram [inj] [uncertain]
However, Crockett han had two pray out [iee] [uncertain] scrimmages, the first ayins

Kirbyville and the second [ngeuine er]) [uncertain] Mexin, 149 state finalists. The Int [ke} ter nerdminage,] [uncertain] Inst
Friday at Mexh n-/aaw the Crockett team pushed [arounc] [uncertain] an) but their..defanne-lookad-batter [tha (previously, Crockett) [uncertain] serial pram [hefelicked] [uncertain] for two touchdowns," [whil] [uncertain] the defense yielded four to the Blac [ad]) [uncertain] Cats,

August 16. Lovelady is a [mombe]
[uncertain] of district 30-B and had spring train ing, but could not start fall work un til September t. The Sandies wot at Grapeland last fall, 24 to 0,

Grapeland expects an improve team,
with a heavier Hne, not too ex [perienced,] [uncertain] Veterans man the back field posts, Altogether, 42 candidate yp eve on the Sandies squad,

Loveludy has only five 1949 [lette Y]
[uncertain] men, but has about 30 boys out an y expects to field at least as good j hl team as in 49, ct Grapeland has had two practice: [Mi] [uncertain] scrimmages against Teague, [1] [uncertain] Game time is [7:45] [uncertain] for the Friday [CC]) [uncertain] night contest.

E. Caprielian line showered with satin streamers in which were tied tube-rose blos- [soms,] [uncertain]

[Miss] [uncertain] Phyllis DeGraw of Dallas was maid of honor and Fred L.
Williams of [Dallas] [uncertain] was best man.

Nancy Craddock of Carthage, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.
Bridesmaids were Mrs. J. D. Craddock of Winnsboro, Mrs. [Pat:] [uncertain] Morris of [Price] [uncertain] and Miss Virginia Morgan of Dallas, Groomsmen were Robert Caprielian,

Collin A. Lockfield Jr and Joe Fielding Warren, all of Crockett; Myron

Rejebian of Dallas and Dr. R. C. Craddock and Paul Craddock, the brides brothers, ushered.

A reception wag held at the home of the brides [parénts,] [uncertain] where Miss

Mary Rejebian of Dallas registered guests. Mrs. Henry Wilkie and Mrs.

William Edwards presided at the cake.
Other members of the house party were Miss Jeanne Johnngon,

Miss La Verne Golden of Dallas and Mrs. M. C. Hawkins of Winnsboro.

Crockett Courier — September 7, 1950

Mr and Mrs. [Caprielian] [uncertain] will live

[illegible or non-text passage omitted — see scan] to California. The bride traveled in toast-colored gabardine suit, an [olivé-green melusine] [uncertain] hat with match- ing veiling and alligator accessories,

She also wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Caprielian attended North

Teexas State Chllege and the University of Texas. [She'] [uncertain] belongs to Beta Sigma Phi sorority." Her husband was graduated from the [Uni- versity] [uncertain] of Texas and is a member [of}] [uncertain] Alpha Delta Sigma honorary [fratern-:] [uncertain] rock: ROC [KUTT,] [uncertain] TEXAS,

[sHowER] [uncertain] FOR MISS LILLIAN JORDAN AND JOE DRISKELL

[A iniscéllnneons] [uncertain] shower [In] [uncertain] hone [HOfof] [uncertain] Mins [LilNan] [uncertain] Jordan of Weldon an

Mr. [Jove Lymm] [uncertain] Drinkell wan given a [nd]] [uncertain] the home of [Mavand] [uncertain] Mrs, [D.] [uncertain] A, Mont [tof] [uncertain] popery in Lovelady [August] [uncertain] 20, from Keto 10 pom by a group of the friend.

CH [Guenty] [uncertain] were [yrreeted] [uncertain] on the [apn] [uncertain] [cloun] [uncertain] Jawn by the host, who [direete] [uncertain] jt, them to the register [Ineide,] [uncertain]

The living room wan beautiful wl decorated with roses in shades o nt pink, [loyether] [uncertain] with pink corn) [vin] [uncertain] and white asters.

[Mendames] [uncertain] Lon Jeter, J, [He] [uncertain] CHek

[illegible or non-text passage omitted — see scan]

The guests were then invited t follow a garden path [ncrons] [uncertain] the heder

Mrs. Char MISS ALMA LOYCE [KNOX,] [uncertain] CHARLES M. TAYLOR WED

In a candlelight ceremony Wednes- day evening, September 6, at the First

Methodist church, Miss Alma Loyce

Knox, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Leo

Knox, became the bride of Charles

Marcus Taylor, son of Mr and Mrs.

Rush Taylor.

Father W. A. Riemann, rector of St.

Phillips Episcopal church, Palestine, read the double-ring ceremony, as- [sisted] [uncertain] by the Rev. Leslie LaGrand.

The altar arch of the church was half filled with shiny magnolia leaves, topped by a huge white net fan light- ed softly from behind. White ca- [thedral] [uncertain] tapers-in wrought iron can- [delabra] [uncertain] were placed at either side of the white satin pillow on which the couple knelt for the final prayer. The rostrum was decorated at either side with large poufs of white chry- [santhemums:] [uncertain] on fluted columns, and [jelusters] [uncertain] of green tapers" in white standards placed before green pleated half fans. The choir rail was covered with tiny white pleated fans decorated with a garland of green leaves, and lighted by green candles in curved holders. The family pews were marked with dainty white [nét] [uncertain] fans.

The candles were lighted preceding the ceremony by Rush Taylor Jr, brother of the bridegroom, and Reed

Ferguson. Jr. The wedding music was provided by [Mrs.] [uncertain] A. M. Decuir, [or-] [uncertain] [ganist,] [uncertain] and Mrs. Jamie Dawson of Bryan, soloist, who sang O, Perfect Love," and I Love Thee,"

The bride, given in marriage by her, father, wore the dress worn Wy her two" sisters at there [9] [uncertain] dings, was fashioned of the traditional" tidal satin" with a yoke of illusion encrusted with seed pearls. [The] [uncertain] long [fitted:] [uncertain] sleeve tapered to points over the [hands,] [uncertain] and the skirt swept into a cathedral) train. Her fingertip veil fell [from:] [uncertain] a coronet of seed pearls,

Miss Betty Joyce Knox attended her twin sister as maid of honor [attired,] [uncertain] in a gown of white nylon tulle with!" matching stole. She carried fan of white nylon net and red carnations.

The bridesmaids, Misses Grace [Ar.] [uncertain]

[ett] [uncertain]

[illegible or non-text passage omitted — see scan]

lo aw cozy Hille house,

At the door of thin title four shoot the happy feted" couple, [whi] [uncertain] directed [dhe] [uncertain] gents from ream room, where everything wan fresh an new, and almost completely [faniah] [uncertain] ed [wlth] [uncertain] rifts from loved [onen,] [uncertain]

The trail Chon led hack to the law:

where more than one hundred real [ay{] [uncertain] Elven and friends of Weldon and Love id Indy had gathered to blah [doo] [uncertain] an ap [Pillar] [uncertain] much happiness,

[LOCAL] [uncertain] MARINE. HURT IN KOREA

A list of Marine Corps [cnmalties lyappearing] [uncertain] in the daily [Howspaperi Sunday] [uncertain] listed wa Croekett boy. [Llater] [uncertain] ye wounded in nation was PEC [Millar] [uncertain]

Chris Malone, son of Mr and) Mra [k,{] [uncertain] Clifton Malone, whose [addressn] [uncertain] war [nigiven] [uncertain] as Star Rt, Crockett. [The] [uncertain]

[Pwotinded marhted] [uncertain] tally" had beer [0}] [uncertain] notified previously of the wounding eff the local boy, [rles] [uncertain] Taylor ledge, Mary Byrde Meriwether, Emily

Wood of Crockett, Miss Minnie Lewis

Sory of [Livingston] [uncertain] and Mrs. Betty

Jean Bailey of [Bayt®%n,] [uncertain] wore red nylon tulle patterned after the maid of honors dress. They carried fans of white nylon" net and tube

Crockett Courier — September 7, 1950

roses,

Little Misses Linda Knox and Pamela Hill were flower girls. They wore white organdy with lace aprons and on their heads were bands of white tulle in which were nestled white rose buds. John R. King Jr served the bride-groom as best man. Groomsman were Donn Currey, Bobby Beal, H. B. Knox, Jimmy Dupuy of Memphis, Tennessee, and Lee Arthur Clayton of Little Rock, Arkansas, Bob Mattox and Willie Hayne. [Knox] were head ushers.

Mrs. Knox wore ice grey crepe with rhinestone trim, and navy and grey accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid. Mrs. Taylor chose green lace gown worn with brown accessories and a brown orchid corsage.

At the reception which followed immediately at the home of the brides parents, the cake was served by Mrs.

H. B. [Knox] and Mrs. Willie Hayne

Knox, Mrs. Bob Mattox and Mrs. Jim Dan Hill served the punch.

Mrs. Donald [Brown] and [Miss:] Betty

Jo Murray presided at the guest register, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Barkley, Miss Donna Davis, [Mrs. Bobby] Beal and Mrs. Donn Currey assisted in the gift room.

Others in the house party were Mrs.

Paul Stokes, Mrs. Jim Gibbs, Miss

Joann Viser of Madisonville, Mrs. Jack Hartt of Baytown, Miss Dian [Bennett,]

Mrs. Glover Morrow, Mrs. [Smith]

Baughman, Mrs. T. E. Walden [and.] Mrs. Irene Shelkofsky of Houston.

The bride left for her wedding trip wearing a grey gabardine suit [with:] dark brown accessories. Her [corsage] was a white orchid,

[She] is a graduate of [Crockett High!]

School and Sam Houston State [Teach-] ers' College where she was a member of the Anne Gibbs Literary [Society,] the Pennybacker Club and the [Twin{]} Club. Myr. Taylor is a graduate of Crockett High School and of Sam Houston State Teachers' College where he was president of the senior class and a member of the Esquire [Club.] He also attended the University [of;] Texas where his fraternity was [Phi] Kappa Sigma oo

[The] couple will make their home in [Dallas, 3] ff te

60 Years a Home Institution,

KELLEY IN KOREA

With the [Mient] Cavalry [Divindon] in

[Kore.] Sergeunt Obla [1,] Kelley, son of My, John [W,] Kelley of Route 4, Crockett, Texas, in the Korean an [oan] member of the First [UL,] Cavalry [Division,] fighting [ayntnat] the North

Korean invaders,

[Nergentt"] Kelley, who was [mMOnlyL]

GERALDINE DAILEY DON McREYNOLDS WED IN CROCKETT

Miss Geraldine Dailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith Dailey of 814 Clark avenue, Crockett, became the bride of Don McReynolds of Jean- [nette,] Pennsylvania, at [7:30] clock

Saturday evening, September 2, in the First Baptist church of Crockett. Rev. V.A. [5S.] Lee, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony. The whole of the church interior was beautiful in its decorations. The background was of clematis and smilax. An arch of candles, with greenery background in the raised baptistry, wrought iron arch in center, and floor baskets of gladiolas and asters [(white)] on each side of arch, gave [Jadded] beauty to an artistic arrangement [uncertain] with candelabras used [through-] out. The aisle markers were [single] candles, tied with satin ribbon [and] fern.

The wedding organist was Mrs. [Earl] McClain, and Miss Carrie Williams of Brenham was soloist. The selections were I Love [Thee] and the Lords

Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Robert Smith [Dailey.]

[Sheichose] a gown of blush white satin that fashioned an intricate design of matching beaded circles extending across the yoke a fitted basque [bo-!]

dice, long fitted sleeves which tapered to petal points over her hands, and [a?]

fully gathered skirt which swept into graceful formal train. Her finger-tip veil of matching illusion fell in full graceful tiers from a white [tierra. 1]

Her bouquet was a satin-covered [Bible?]

white orchids and Lilies of the Valley. 5

The matron of honor, Mrs. Milton

Dailey, sister-in-law, [(6f)] Grapeland) wore a horizon blue net over taffeta with bouffant skirt and net circle. Her headdress was of yellow daisy chrysanthemums, with matching nets. She carried yellow daisy chrysanthemums, with [folral] emphasis at top and [with\] graceful streamers of daisy mums.

Bridesmaids were Misses Arlene Foster of Kenedy; Zodie LeMay, [Miriam] Robertson and Sunshine [Rogers] of Crockett; Mrs. Jack Shultz [of; Grapeland] and Mrs. Leo Skidmore [of] j

[illegible or non-text passage omitted — see scan]

as that of the maid of honor v

Crockett Courier — September 7, 1950

The flower girl, Miss Kathryn [Fitz-] [uncertain] gerald of Amarillo, wore a horizon) c blue net over taffeta, [t] [uncertain]

The best man was Von [McReynoldg,] [uncertain] brother of the groom, from J [eannette,}] [uncertain] r Pa oo

Groomsmen were Bob [Reeves,] [uncertain] t Groves, Texas; Jasper Jones, [Charles]] [uncertain] ir Spain and Rosa Allee, Crockett; [Mil-] [uncertain] b ton Dailey and Jack Shoultz, [Grape-] [uncertain] ji land p

The mother of" the bride wore [an] [uncertain] qi original model of mauve crepe with) ce

Volume [LXI—Number] [uncertain] 97
[illegible or non-text passage omitted —
see scan]

the Initial troops of the [atyinton] [uncertain] to [Tan] [uncertain] in Koren at the outbreak of war, han duties an action sergeant in charge of an [Bt] [uncertain] millimeter mortar section of the Mighth Cavalry regi- [Hnient.] [uncertain] He his been with his present unit since July of 1940. [1 Dartng] [uncertain] World War [HL,] [uncertain] Syt. Kolloy win with [Ll] [uncertain] troop [(now] [uncertain] company) lath Cavalry regiment, [darhag] [uncertain] all the inland hopping: [campatgne] [uncertain] the [(Uylston] [uncertain] made in the [Paeifie.] [uncertain] He first entered i tho military services In April of 1043,

[illegible or non-text passage omitted —
see scan]

[AcReynolds] [uncertain]

Alenco Ince yoke. Her hat was of ee mauve hued net, accented with a single rose, black accessories, orchid corsage.

The grooms mother wore a beige:

satin and crepe dress, brown accesso- [ries,] [uncertain] orchid corsage, 7

The reception following the cere- [mony] [uncertain] was in the home of Mr and

Mrs. Raymond Callaway, where the: [8] [uncertain] brides table was covered with an im- md ported lace table cover, centered with an arrangement of white asters and e tube roses. The brides three-tiered a cake, embossed with wedding bells, me and punch were served by Mrs. Ben [OR] [uncertain]

Perdue and Mrs. Walter Morgan. Oth- er members of the house party were Mrs. Raymond Callaway and Mrs. Clif- [aos] [uncertain] ford Pennington, Crockett; Mrs. Mose a)

Henry Spence, Mrs. Jack Dailey, [Mrs.] [uncertain]

Mike Dailey and Mrs. Henry Dailey Jr. Grapeland; Miss Ruth Ellen Dai- [CON,] [uncertain] ley, Tueson, Ariz. and Mrs. Ike Daniel, [7s 7] [uncertain] Deer Park. Presiding at the register was Miss Jo Ann Dailey off Grapeland.

The bride chose a travelling suit of tableau blue [milatine] [uncertain] with a hand detailed blouse. Her hat and other accessories were of acorn brown, with corsage of white orchids.

The couple will make their home in. Waco, Texas. The bride is a graduate of Crockett High School and a senior at Baylor University, where her fra [ternity] [uncertain] was Kappa [Pi,] [uncertain]

The groom is a graduate of Port Neches High School, Port Neches, Texas, and a senior in Baylor Law School, where his fraternity membership was in Phi Alpha Delta,

Out of town [gurests] [uncertain] for the wedding were Mrs. Bob Wherry of Memphis, Texas; Mrs. Otho Fitzgerald of Amarillo, Mr and Mrs. James Woodruff of Matador, Texas; Mr and Mrs. J. P. Metcalf of Franklin, Mrs. Henry Dailey Sr and daughter, Ruth Ellen, of Tugson, Ariz. Mr and Mrs. Ike Daniel of Deer Park, [Mrs.] [uncertain] Clifford Bever of Hedrick, Iowa; Mr and Mrs. Martin McReynolds and son, Ted, of Jeannette, Pa.

ERRONEOUS [REPORT] [uncertain] CIVEN ON GRAND [JURY] [uncertain] ACTIVITY

An erroneous report gained circulation last week that a [spectal] [uncertain] grand jury investigation was being made cre-in- regard to alleged tampere [vith] [uncertain] absentee ballots in the county jerks office. The news report [conerned] [uncertain] such activity at" Conroe, but he name of: Crockett was substituted or Conroe in transmission of a news [eport] [uncertain] by a news agency. When queried, the news agency quickly corrected he report. A regular grand jury was n session here the first of last week, ut investigated only routine grand [ury] [uncertain] matters, so far as has been reported. The Houston county group." sickly completed its [labora] [uncertain] and [ye<] [uncertain] messed. [2] [uncertain] tt