Charles Albin Spain has returned from Austin, where he attended the summer session of the University of Texas.

Raymond Cornelius Jr. left on the six o'clock evening train Saturday for Kemper Military School at Boonville, Missouri.

Arguments should be avoided on the ground that the other fellow never shown anything but pig-head stubbornness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Strong and children of Texas City were guests Saturday of Mrs. J. B. Stanton in Crockett.

Miss Catherine Hassell has returned from Huntsville, where she was a student of the Sam Houston State Normal school.

Two years from now the candidate who can promise a television set in every home is going to be the man of the hour.

The thing that costs the least in this day of high costs and does the most in this day of less work is just a pleasant smile.

Mrs. Erin Tunstall Carney, now of Longview, but formerly of New Orleans, is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bennett.

Dr. and Mrs. John A. McCall announce the arrival of a daughter, born Tuesday, August 22, 1950, and christened Pamela Elaine.

Geo. M. Jeffus and wife spent August 21 thru the 23rd attending the Texas Nurserymen's Association at the Rice Hotel in Houston.

He that cannot forgive others breaks the bridge over which he must pass himself; for every man has to be forgiven.—Lord Herbert.

Men's Corduroy Sport Coats have arrived, $17.50. Buy now on our lay-away plan. Spain Dry Goods Store.

"I limit myself to one drink a day, and now I'm taking next Sunday's drink," said the man on Monday night who had already taken six drinks that day.

Jamie Clements is visiting in Dallas, Vernon and Amarillo before returning to the University of Texas at Austin for the opening of the fall semester.

Mrs. Harvey Billingsley, formerly Miss Patsy Lowery, of Pasadena, visited the J. E. Towerys with her year and a half old son, Billy, on Friday of last week.

A Crockett stenographer says her boss has plenty of nerve; that he gives her plenty of work to do and takes himself off to play golf the rest of the afternoon.

Quite a party of friends were at the railroad station Saturday evening to see Raymond Cornelius Jr. off for Kemper Military School at Boonville, Mo., and to wish him well in his studies.
