county, on Tuesday, July [25, 1950.] [uncertain] This was- the 60th annual getting, each on the 26th of July.
According to information based on facts, it began July 25, 1890, exactly a year after the burial, of J. G. Bobbitt, commonly known- as- Grandpa Bobbitt.- A group of men met there on that day and worked the cemetery. [They] [uncertain] agreed meet there each year on the 25th of of July to work the graveyard, as it) was called then, in memory of Grandpa Bobbitt. For years people gathered there with their hoes and lunches, and enjoyed the day working and having dinner on the ground. Of recent years, the cemetery is [worked] [uncertain] before the [gathering—being] [uncertain] kept by Mr. [BH.] [uncertain] P. [Cutler—and] [uncertain] the memorial is held.on the 25th of July. The descendants of Grandpa Bobbitt [and] [uncertain] other people who have relatives [buried}] [uncertain] there, generation after generation, observe that special day.

This cemetery was started as a family plot, but became the community burying ground. Grandpa Bobbitts sop, Jack Bobbitt, was the [first}] [uncertain] one buried there, nearly eighty [years|.] [uncertain] ago. It was said that he- died from a cough developed from service [in] [uncertain] the Confederate Army.

It might be of interest to some people to know that around this [old}] [uncertain] Bobbitt cemetery lies a ghost [community,] [uncertain] which was once a [thriving}] [uncertain] country place, with the Bobbitt school) and church on the hill overlooking the cemetery, as its center of [activi-|.] [uncertain] ties. The place was, settled by [Grandf] [uncertain] pa Bobbitt, who came from Mississippi with his family not- long after [the}] [uncertain] Civil War ended. As far ag the writ- er knows, his" nearest t [Tving relative]
