DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL SLATED FOR JULY

Mrs. J. Carl Goodby, director, has announced that the next session of the Daily Vacation Bible School will be held at the Methodist church for one week. Commencement will be Sunday night, July 23.

"Happy Times in Our Church" is the title of one of the studies of the general theme, Study of Our Church. Age groups will include boys and girls aged 4 through 14 years. The church department, ages 4 and 5, will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Goodby. Primary, ages 6, 7 and 8, Mrs. Florence King; Junior, ages 9, 10 and 11, Mrs. Bertha Leigh Roberts; and Intermediate, ages 12, 13 and 14, Mrs. Beth Petty.

Bible studies will be the principal purpose of the school. Along with study will be handicrafts such as art work in drawing and painting, crafts, story telling, music and singing. "We are making use of the very best talent to be found in our church," said Mrs. Goodby. "Children will find the Vacation Bible School of value in fun, fellowship and information. Our chairman will be assisted by a very excellent corps of teachers."

W. S. (HAPPY) COOK
FOR CONSTABLE
PRECINCT NO. 1

To all the people in this precinct: I have tried to see all of you personally, but to all of you I would like to tell you, your support will be highly appreciated.

I am a veteran of World War II, and a young man qualified to handle this job. I can and will make you a good constable. A smart man once quoted, "A smart man is not so smart unless he uses a little good ole' common sense."

When the young man asked what the job paid and was told that it would pay what he was worth to the business, he very emphatically declared that he couldn't work that cheap.

BELOTT COMMUNITY SOCIAL AND OTHER NEWS

Mr. Glenn Walker spent several days visiting in Houston. Mrs. Pearl Shotton of Arizona visited in the home of her brother, Tom Sartor, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Colman and some of their children were here for a visit. Mr. Frank Beathard, who has been in a local hospital from an operation, is able to be at home again and on the road to recovery.

Take Life Easier... with an Electric Food Freezer

Owning an electric food freezer is like having a super-market right in your own kitchen!

Think of it! With an electric food freezer, you don't have to shop so often... you save hours of canning... you can cook and bake ahead for hot days and special occasions. You can keep garden-fresh fruits and vegetables, meats, fish, soup, pies, out-of-season treats at your fingertips... ready to heat and eat!

What's more, frozen foods are tastier and better for you. Flavor and vitamins are sealed in. Because you can buy food in large quantities at lower, peak-of-the-season prices, your food freezer saves you money, as well as time and trouble. Take life easier with a wonderful electric food freezer... and let it pay for itself in convenience and economy!
