[WORTHWHILE] [uncertain] CRITICISM FROM MEXICAN VISITOR

[(Galveston] [uncertain] News).

The people of Galveston, and of [alt] [uncertain] Texas, for that matter, would do [well].] [uncertain] to ponder a bit of criticism [directed] [uncertain] at the state by a visitor from [Mexico.] [uncertain] It is not serious criticism in the [sense"] [uncertain] that it berates the people of [Texas"] [uncertain] for some gross blunder. Rather, it pointed out a few shortcomings [which] [uncertain] should be remedied.

The speaker is Ismael Falcon, al" former congressman and senator representing: Chihuahua who has been in the state for the past three-months as a goodwill delegate of President Aleman. His principal purpose, as he pointed out during his visit to this city, is to win greater friendship of Texans for the people of Mexico.

Senor Falcon pointed out, some facts which a great many people of this state have lost sight of: That almost half of the martyrs who died in the Alamo were men of Mexican/1 blood and that there were many [Mex-1 icans] [uncertain] in Gen. Sam [Houstons] [uncertain] army i at San Jacinto. Also, he said Sante I Anna is detested as much by [Mex-}] [uncertain] cans as hy Texans f

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have ruled them for years and to assume among the powers of earth the separated and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinion of mankind requires that they should declare cause which impels them to this separation,

We hold that these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness,

That, to secure these rights, governments [are] [uncertain] instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

That whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter and abolish it and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principle and organizing its own powers in such form that shall seem most likely to effect the
