EVENTS HAVE VINDICATED MARTIN DIES,

An yditerial..feom tho. Greanvil

[(Texnr)] [uncertain] Morning Herald

In a statement released for [publ] [uncertain] cation in papers of June 2, forme

Texna [Congressman] [uncertain] Martin Dies, wh originated and for years headed th

House Committee on Un-America

Activities, said: I have been [vindi] [uncertain] [cated] [uncertain] by the events of ten years.

The man who retired from congress in January, 1945, certainly has bee vindicated, it seems to us. The Die interview is replete with reminder of things which he and his depart [ment] [uncertain] called to the attention of th then President Franklin [D.] [uncertain] Roosevelt) and other officials of the [Roverment] [uncertain] And the former congressman, now Prosperous private practitioner of the law, [recalla:] [uncertain] When warned, a dec [ade] [uncertain] ago, of Communists in our government, I was called a witch hunter When I said, in the days of Hitler and Mussolini, that Russia would turn out to be the real world menace, my views were regarded as fan [stic."] [uncertain]

Of the Dies [committes] [uncertain] the former congressman says: In 1938 and 1939 we gave the executive branch of the government the names of 2,000 government employees who were members of Communist or Communistfront organizations. Most of these people were permitted to remain on the public payroll until 1947, when the loyalty probe began. Since then, about 90 per cent of the 2,000 have been discharged, very quietly, or [permitted] [uncertain] to retire or have been transferred from Washington to outlying real." we

Perhaps the most interesting [revlation] [uncertain] in the Dies interview is his [lescription] [uncertain] of a conference he had [ith] [uncertain] Franklin D. Roosevelt in [1941—] [uncertain] he very year this country was [preipitated] [uncertain] into war. The conference vas at the invitation of Mr. Roosevelt. Ve think the Dies version should be [iven]

[uncertain] here, since for years we heard [nly] [uncertain] the Roosevelt scoffing at the [ommittee] [uncertain] which Mr. Dies headed. [ies] [uncertain] says:

In 1941, President Roosevelt summoned me to his office. I was there ty minutes. A white house [reportr] [uncertain] took down every word that Was id. I told Mr. Roosevelt he was sing duped by Stalin or agents [of. talin] [uncertain] in the United States. I told im Communists were looting [the}.] [uncertain] les of our government for military crews and the files of industry [for]; dustrial] [uncertain] secrets which they [planned]] [uncertain] use against us eventually. [(] [uncertain] I told Mr. Roosevelt that if [he]: dnt] [uncertain] clean house he would someday [ake] [uncertain] a tragic blunder that would mar s brilliant career. And then Mr. [osevelt] [uncertain] told me he could do business [ith] [uncertain] Stalin and did not fear the Reds." Dies declares emphatically that Mr. [osevelt] [uncertain] was not a Communist. Inead, says Dies, Mr. Roosevelt [was:] [uncertain] e cleverest politician this [country]] [uncertain] er produced. S. News [SI] [uncertain] estimates, our [stom] [uncertain] bomb stockpile [A] [uncertain] totals 400, ns against 25 for the com- [Sfmunist] [uncertain] world. [S/] [uncertain] But arms aren't the whole story. [t-}] [uncertain] In the Inst war, for instance, we eel tired into hostilities at a terrific dis- It advantage in this department. Japan, [t. Germany] [uncertain] and Italy were all far ahead [Alof] [uncertain] us in the size and strength of [Clevery] [uncertain] combat service. What told in the long run was our military poten- [tial—which]

[uncertain] simply means the indus trial capacity that can be applied to [T\creating,] [uncertain] arming, transporting and [hn}} [uncertain] maintaining a great Army, Navy and [Yt] [uncertain] Air Force.

So, when the. U. S. News compares [rithe] [uncertain] production power of the two worlds the picture becomes infinitely more encouraging. The U. S bloc has an annual steel production, capa- city of 144,000,000 tons the Russian bloc has 30,000,000, Annual coal pro auction on our side is 1,360,000,000 [1tons;] [uncertain] Russia can count on 430,000,000. [L] [uncertain] Electric power-output per year runs 690,000,000,000 kilowatt hours" and 106,000,000,000 respectively. Oil comes to 3,089,000,000 barrels as against [299,000,000.] [uncertain] Rail mileage is 675,900, as opposed to 107,800. And [Russias] [uncertain] food supplies are always short.

After summarizing the strengths and weaknesses of the Possible an- [tagonists,] [uncertain] U. S. News said: [Outlook,|'] [uncertain] with the Western means of defense, gradually overtaking the [Soviet;] [uncertain] J means of waging" an offensive War, is for a stalemate of long duration, t rather than a quick victory for [Rus-t] [uncertain] [sia,] [uncertain] if war comes. Each side is now getting into position to inflict heavy damage on the other. Yet neither side, at this time, has the edge in [of-] [uncertain] [fensive] [uncertain] strength needed to win," e

Elsewhere in the article the magazine also said, A shooting war, asJ things stand, means a stalemate no-/a body wants." That is one reason why there is so much hope that the formal peace may be maintained, even though [thecold] [uncertain] war periodically blows [warm-] [uncertain] G er so far as words are concerned. The e masters of Russia certainly are not bent on self-destruction. And, asa General Marshall said in his impressive [Memoria]] [uncertain] Day address at [Arling-] [uncertain] a ton, there may be no real victor- if other war [comes—all] [uncertain] the [nations]] [uncertain] a may be virtually destroyed, fe
