Friday afternoon and qualified for the open competition Friday night, [Sec-] [uncertain]

[ond] [uncertain] place among Houston county en- tries went ts Jesse Johnsons Lamp- lighters of Crockett.

Jesse Johnson Jr was star of the amateur hour. The 10-year-old son of the band leader gave a reading which captured first prize.

A number of visiting groups enter- [tained] [uncertain] the crowd Friday afternoon.

Among those contributing to the pleasing program were the..Goree Girls and the Prison Swingsters from the state prison at Huntsville. These groups proved capable entertainers.

The [Alabama-Coushatta.] [uncertain] Indiang from Polk county were delayed by a bus breakdown in arriving, but made a big hit with the crowd with their contribution to" the program.

Unmistakably, the attendance was the largest in the 14-year history of the festival. The arrangements were well handled and everybody seemed to have a good time. One person fell out" during the evening, but this was the only untoward incident reported.

Morris Frank of the Houston [Chronstle,] [uncertain] in his inimitable style, served as master of ceremonies and kept the crowd in good spirits with his humor.

His subject Saturday night was Itches and Urges." He touched on politics, [aiid] [uncertain] is against any more New Deals, Fair Deals and Crooked Deals, but in favor of the square deals of old-time Democracy. Born and reared in Mississippi, the New Deal and other deals have knocked his blocks off so many times that he now claims to be neither Democrat or Republican, but against our present day trends toward Socialism and Communism, He has made several trips abroad since the war, and thinks it is-not too late to go back to old-time Democratic principles if we will only try: His audience of more than 300 newspaper people seemed to be with him. He hopes to again be a [Democrat—A] [uncertain] Democrat now in principle.
