TODAY.

It is a gloomy moment in history.

Not for many [years—not] [uncertain] in the life- time of most men who read this has there been so much grave and deep [appréhension—never] [uncertain] has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time.

In France the political caldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty;

Russia hangs as usual like a cloud, dark and silent upon the horizon of Europe while all the energies, resources and influences of the British

Tt is a solemn moment, and no man:

can feel [indifference—which,] [uncertain] happily, no man pretends to [feel—in] [uncertain] the issue of events,

Of our own troubles, no man can see the end, They are, fortunately, as yet mainly commercial and if we are only to lose money, and by painful poverty to be taught wisdom of honor, of faith? of sympathy and [charity—no] [uncertain] man need seriously to despair,

And yet the very haste to be rich, which is the occasion of this wide- spread calamity, has also tended to destroy the moral forces with which we are to resist and subdue the calam-
